70,000 Register Here For Sugar Rationing

Congestion At Two Centers Cleared By Transfer of More Registrars

The enormous task of registering about 70,000 persons for war rationing was undertaken in Newton at 24 school buildings and the process ran smoothly until late in the forenoon when jams developed at the Mason School, Newton Centre, and the Underwood School, Newton Corner.

The congestion became so acute at those two centers that steps were taken at once by Superintendent Julius E. Warren to relieve the situation. Additional registrars were transferred to the two schools from other centers where the pressure was less severe.

The waiting lines at the Mason and Underwood Schools became so long that the registrars were advised to go to other schools which were less rushed. Those who had come in autos did as requested, relieving the situation to some extent. Most of the applicants, however, were housewives who had walked from their homes.

The transfer of registrars from schools where the rush was not so great, however, resulted in the possibility that congestion would develop at these centers later.

The staff of more than 500 teachers who served as registrars at the 24 centers were assisted by about 500 high school students who have been trained for the purpose.

Despite the fact that an effort had been made by the boy scout organization to deliver application blanks to all homes, the majority of the applicants arrived at the schools without the blanks, thereby failing to take advantage of the opportunity to save time.

However, outside of the trouble at the Mason and Underwood Schools, the work progressed smoothly. At the Day School, West Newton, for example, it was estimated that more than 200 ration books had been issued before noon.

At each school the supervisors were kept busy settling individual problems that arose. In one case at the Davis School, a woman reported that she had 19 pounds of sugar on hand, but asserted that she would use the entire quantity before Thursday and asked that she be given the full ration books for her family. She was informed, however, that the registrars must observe the regulations and deduct the excess amount.

The registration places included all schools except the Newton High School buildings.

Hearings Planned On Bus Service

Two petitions for extension of bus service in Newton recently received by the city government are being considered by the Board of Aldermen. One of the petitions is for an extension of service to the Oak Hill route along Brookline st. to the Brookline town line or to Horace James cir., West Roxbury.

The other requests the extension of the Oak Hill route along Brookline st. to the Brookline town line or to Horace James cir., West Roxbury.

The order of the ODT, signed by Joseph B. Eastman, was called to the attention of Rodney C. Eaton, chairman of the franchises and licenses committee, which will report on the petitions. The ODT order follows:

"Extension of existing bus routes and inauguration of new routes should be made only to places of defense employment and military and naval establishment or to meet similar situations where failure to provide such additional service will have a definite unfavorable effect on the war effort."

Residents of Waban recently prevailed upon the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company to undertake a bus line for a trial period on Beacon st. between Newton Lower Falls and Cleveland cir. The project evidently got "under the wire" before the ODT order could affect it. The concern was reluctant to establish the line, but was urged to give it a trial by the Department of Public Utilities after residents had appealed from the refusal of the Board of Aldermen to act.

Users of Large Quantities of Sugar Number 327

A total of 327 retail, wholesale, institutional and industrial organizations and individuals filed applications for sugar rationing.

The number of registrations came close to predictions, as it had been estimated by officials that there would be between 350 and 400.

A staff of 160 teachers served as registrars, divided into two shifts of 80 each. A so-called "assembly line" was set up in the gym and applicants were required to walk the entire length of the line answering the questions required in successive phases of the registration. On each day school closed early to enable teachers to take up their duties as registrars at 2 P. M. The afternoon sessions were comparatively busy, while there were lulls in the evenings.

Those who failed to register will be given an opportunity to do so later when the rationing system has been set up at City Hall.

Any who registered and who may require increased amounts of sugar later will be given a chance to apply for adjustments.

Included in the applicants who registered were stores, boarding houses, cafeterias, bakeries, restaurants, summer camps and beekeepers. There were six of the latter variety.

Herter Announces He Will Run For Congress

Christian A. Herter, speaker of the House of Representatives, announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congressman from the 10th District, which includes, Newton, Brookline and seven Boston wards.

The present Congressman, George Holden Tinkham, recently announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

At the same time that Herter made known his candidacy, Philip G. Bowker of Brookline, associate member of the Metropolitan District Commission, who had announced that he would oppose Congressman Tinkham at the primaries, stated that he would withdraw his candidacy and offered his support to Herter.

The 10th District is a new one consisting of Wards 4, 5, 10, 12, 19, 20 and 21 of Boston, and all of Brookline, Newton, etc. It is one of the largest districts in the state and includes more than 400,000 voters.

The former district which Tinkham represented composed Wards 9 and 11 as well as other Boston wards. For these two wards, Brookline and Newton were substituted.

Speaker Herter was born in Paris, France, in 1895, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1915. He served as attaché of the American embassy in Berlin and was later in charge of the American legation in Brussels, Belgium. He is president of the Republican Club of Massachusetts and an overseer of Harvard.

He is the father of four children, including son, Lieutenant Christian A. Herter, Jr., 23, now attached to Fort Sill, Okla.; Frederick, 21, a student at Harvard Medical School; Adele, 16, and Miles, 13.

Minns of 155 Temple st., West Newton, was awarded a special prize for a giant Epiphyllum Ackermannii, of the so-called Christmas Cactus type. A similar prize went to Walter Hunsweil, for rhododendrons, grown by his gardener, John Ellis.

Norman A. Hall of 10 Howe rd., Newton Centre, was found not guilty on a charge of failing to stop before entering a through way by Judge Donald E. Mayberry in the Newton District Court on Friday morning. Hall argued his own case stating that contrary to the allegation of the police he had stopped his car on Lowell ave. before entering Commonwealth ave.

Annual Meeting of Newton Centre Improvement Association May 13

The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association will be held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, May 13. Mayor Paul M. Giddard will be the guest speaker.

Officers and directors for the year 1942-1943 will be elected and the President will report on the activities of the Association.

In times such as these the work of organizations such as the Newton Centre Improvement Association necessarily goes forward at a reduced tempo. Many improvements calling for the expenditure of public money, no matter how desirable they may be, must be deferred.

This does not mean, however, that the activities of the Association are at a standstill. Some of the matters given attention during the past year follow:

The traffic situation in Newton Centre has been studied. Various plans to alleviate traffic congestion were advanced and finally it was decided to request the Street Department to change the intervals of the traffic lights on Beacon st. at Centre st. and at Summer st. This was done and more time was allowed for traffic to clear from Centre st. and from Summer st. On Summer st. the traffic flow was impeded by cars which were parked into the traveled part of the street. Parking lanes were

Cong. Eliot Is Given Honor

Congressman Thomas H. Eliot was this week presented with the Annual Award of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. This honor was particularly in recognition of his leadership in defeating the Hobbs Concentration Camp Bill, which would have enabled an Administrator to imprison certain aliens for life, without a hearing, even in times of peace. The presentation was made by Abner Green of New York, Executive Secretary of the Committee, and former President Guy Stanton Ford of the University of Minnesota.

In expressing his appreciation of this honor, Congressman Eliot said: "We too often speak of the foreign born, or the aliens, as if they were a race apart. They are not. Many of them are fighting in our American forces today. Thousands of others have sons who are fighting for America. After all this country came into existence, and has been made great, through the efforts of people who were 'foreign born' or descendants of the foreign born."

"This reminds us of the folly of determining policies on the arbitrary basis of whether a man was born here or not. While some of our best patriots are foreign born, some of our native Americans are being arrested for sedition. Whether people are law-abiding members of the community, and whether they believe in American principles of democracy and freedom and tolerance, does not depend on where they were born. We have no faith in any 'master race' here. We believe in the ennobling effect of human liberty, and the power of the American dream to inspire all who come to make their homes in this country, today as in centuries past."

Aldermen Repeal Recent Ordinance Limiting 'El' Speed

Enact New Ordinance Increasing Speed to 25 Miles an Hour—Crystal Lake Zoning Controversy Revived

Courting the approval of the Department of Public Utilities, the Newton Board of Aldermen Monday repealed the recently enacted ordinance limiting the speed of trolley cars to 20 miles an hour and adopted a new ordinance increasing the limit to 25 miles an hour.

The new ordinance retained the provision limiting the speed of the cars to 10 miles an hour around curves, which were specified as those at Park and Tremont sts., Park and Washington sts., and Washington and Centre sts.

The change was voted unanimously after Chairman George E. Rawson, presenting the report of the claims and rules committee, explained that the 25-mile speed limit was "more likely to be accepted by the Department of Public Utilities." He said the approval of the department was needed before the ordinance could go into effect.

A letter asking that the statute providing for a speed limit of 30 miles an hour for motor vehicles be applied to street cars, as well, was recently received by the board from Edward Dana, president and general manager of the Boston Elevated.

The agitation for the adoption of an ordinance limiting the speed of trolley cars started after the recent accident in which an Elevated car overturned at Park and Tremont sts., Newton Corner.

After a hearing at which no opposition was expressed, the board granted the petition of Sally E. Turner for a permit to change a single dwelling at 132 Woodland rd., Auburndale, to a two-family dwelling in a Single Residence "B" district. The board received a letter from Lasell Junior college expressing approval of the petition.

Calling attention to the order of the War Production Board preventing the purchase of asphalt road repairing material after May 9, Alderman John Temperley declared that the asphalt sidewalk on Linden st., opposite Cheney st., Newton Upper Falls, is in need of repair and warned that unless the repairs are made he would refuse to vote "leave to withdraw" on any claims for damages that might result. He said the sidewalk had been repaired several years ago, but was again in bad condition.

The Crystal Lake zoning controversy was revived by Alderman Charles E. Hughes when he read an account of a statement made by Donald D. McKay, former alderman, quoting City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett as ruling that the proposed rezoning of the ice house site from manufacturing to residence zone would not be "confiscation" of property as contended by the owners and some members of the board.

"H—no," McKay quoted Bartlett as exclaiming in response to his query whether the zoning change would amount to confiscation. "And I told the claims and rules committee so."

"If the city solicitor made that ruling and the committee did not pass the information to the board, the committee was remiss," Hughes declared.

Referring to a remark that was made at the preceding meeting to the effect that Chairman Herbert Kellaway was practically the only member of the Planning Board who was pushing the proposal to rezone the Crystal Lake district, Hughes said he had talked with Kellaway and was told that the Planning Board was "absolutely unanimous" on the matter.

The matter was not presented correctly before the board," Hughes declared. "It was wrong to withhold information which would have influenced the board's vote."

Alderman Howard Whitmore later served notice that he would not let the Crystal Lake situation rest. Referring to the debris on the house site he asserted that eight years had elapsed since the ice house had been destroyed by fire and nothing had been done to clean up the site.

"It is a despicable attitude on the part of the owners," he declared. "We will continue to agitate the matter until it is rezoned to single residence."

Chairman Rawson replied that a change of zone would not "clean up the mess." "Who's going to?"

Newton Dim-Out Follows Ruling By Safety Committee

In accordance with orders issued by Headquarters First Corps Area and the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety, May 2, 1942, Newton has dimmed many of its lights Monday. While Newton is not in the 3-mile area from the coast in which the shielding of all lights visible from the sea is required, it is in the area in which it is necessary to reduce the "sky-glow" so as to prevent ships being silhouetted against an illuminated sky and thus become perfect targets for enemy submarines.

The orders provide:

1. Extinguish permanently all advertising and display signs and lights.
2. Eliminate all display lighting in shop and store windows.
3. Shield or extinguish all outside lights, excluding street lights, and diminish all skylights which throw direct lights skyward.
4. Shield all street lights from skyward progression, as far as possible, by means of shields and materials for this work can be obtained. Reduce the wattage of unshielded street lights where practicable. Extinguish all unshielded street lights which are found to be unnecessary for public safety.

These regulations apply to all plants not government owned or operated, whether or not those plants are engaged in war production. In dealing with all plants engaged in war production, the authorities progressively as funds will exact compliance with those regulations to the maximum extent compatible with the continuance of full production.

Installations and establishments owned or operated by the Federal Government will be given appropriate orders in conformity with these regulations by the respective departments of the Federal Government.

Changes in these regulations will be made from time to time as a result of inspection and experience. Violations of the above regulations will incur the penalties prescribed by law.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, May 10, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text is: "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity" (Hosea 14:1). Other Bible citations include: "For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (I Corinthians 15:21, 22).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The condemnation of mortals to till the ground means this—that mortals should so improve material belief by thought tending spiritually upward as to destroy materiality. . . . As in Adam (earth) shall all be made alive. The truth shall all be made alive. The mortality of man is a myth, for man is immortal" (p. 545).

REMAKE YOUR HOME FOR WARTIME LIVING. SUGGESTS FOUNDATION DIRECTOR

"The Government is encouraging rehabilitation of old property and conversion of one-family homes into apartments for two or more families," says Paul S. Collier, Director of Northeastern Homes Foundation.

It has recently issued an order giving priorities assistance for remodeling homes in defense areas to a greater degree than possible under its recent Conservation Order.

Remodeling provides increased housing for war workers and serves an important need.

"Many home owners in these areas are also helping to relieve the shortage and provide comfortable living space for war workers. With a demand for furnished rooms for single men and women, home owners are renting spare rooms. Men and women whose work has taken them away from home appreciate pleasant, attractive rooms in private homes. And owners find the income from the rent of unused space helpful in meeting the higher cost of living."

"Some home owners have been so anxious to salvage as much room as possible for housing defense workers that they have turned to their attics to provide more rentable rooms. Usually the conversion of an attic into livable space entails some expense. But in return, most attics adapt themselves to the building of at least two rooms for prospective tenants. The rental income can carry the cost, and may continue long enough to amortize the entire investment."

"Often an attic works to good advantage as an apartment. Such apartments are popular among people who desire furnished rooms. Materials needed for converting unused attic space into living space are obtainable."

"For those who want to better their present living conditions or help workers to secure adequate, comfortable living quarters, and are unable to obtain a priority for a new home, remodeling is the logical answer. If an attic isn't needed to make an additional room, remodeling may take the form of adding a game room or blackout room in the basement, cupboards and closets and built-ins; a great many other home improvements may be made, well within the $500 limit. And if the whole family shares the labor of the remodeling job, so that a bigger percentage of the limited investment can go to necessary materials, more expensive alterations are still possible."

Day Jr. High

High Jinks at Hollister, a drama in two acts, was the assembly program presented by the Eighth Grade Dramatic Elective Class on Friday, May 1st. The play was a rollicking comedy of life in a girls' situations. The cast consisted of: Mary Bigelow, Jean Marie Bova, Jane Brown, Marilyn Chalmers, Sally Pillsbury, Nancy Gardner, Nancy Beach, Barbara Williams, Betty Chase, Barbara Cavanaugh, Barbara Buschen, Bunny Hoagland, Barbara Campbell, Nancy Carter and Mary Hurley.
The production was directed by Mr. Richter and Mrs. Holmes. Working behind the scenes were Patty Burt, Ruth Concanan, and Dick Gallagher. Miss Grenier was in charge of make-up.

Between the acts the orchestra, directed by Mr. Jurgielewicz, played several selections.
Club director, Miss Louise Paul, announced that there will be no more club meetings this year except for those groups who have war service work to complete. These are Red Cross First Aid, under Miss Norcross; Red Cross Sewing, Miss Pratt; Red Cross Knitting, Miss Seale and Miss Paul. All other pupils will return to home rooms. Home room teachers will have a priority claim on their time. If a subject teacher wishes to work with a pupil, that teacher will make arrangements with the home room teacher.

The schedule of school hours is changed this week to allow for the rationing of sugar:
Monday, Tuesday and Thursday,

no school. Wednesday, 8:30—10:30. Friday, 8:30—2:30.
Now in debate in the Student Council is the problem of silent passing. A committee from the council, headed by President Bill McCleod, will go with Mr. Burkhard to visit another junior high school in Newton where the passing is done silently. This will enable the students to observe first hand the good and bad features of this plan.

The boys are anticipating the expansion of facilities at the Horace Mann playground. With the co-operation of the Street and Park Departments, there soon will be more opportunity to play baseball and softball.
Under Mr. Angino's direction in the mechanical drawing classes and in after-school work several boys prepared excellent signs for the draft and sugar rationing.

When the 1941 National Honor Society Members at Newton High School were announced recently it was noted that of the approximate total of 40 candidates 19 of them were former Day Junior High School pupils.

Boy Drowned in Charles River

The body of Kenneth Jones of 62 Webster st., West Newton, was recovered about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon a short distance from where he was drowned while swimming in the Charles River off North st., Newtonville, on Monday afternoon. Police and firemen from Newton and Watertown using four boats had dragged the body from the river. They recovered the body at 10:30 Monday night and resumed the search again at 8 a. m. Tuesday morning.
The boy, who was 10 years of age resided at the home of Mrs. Della Kennedy. With Eugene Thibodeau, 10 years of age, who lives at the same address he went swimming Monday afternoon. When his companion noticed him struggling and shouting for help about 15 feet from shore, he seized one of his wrists, John V. Law, and him ashore but the boy struggled so that the Thibodeau boy lost his hold on him. He ran to the nearest house on Albermarle rd. and notified the occupants who summoned the police. In a short time both police and firemen arrived with inhalators and grappling irons.

Prizes were awarded for the prettiest dolls to Sylvia DeDomino, Phyllis Makavitch, Millison Stanich and Stephanie Seylonis.
In the Sewing Project, the following gifts of baskets of pansies and moss pinks were awarded to Eleanor Shapara for a runner; Esther Aquilino for table cover; Eileen Mahoney for table cover; Eleanor Horrigan for table cover. For the knitting project, the prize went to Anna DeDonata; Julia Mamishian for wire pins; Barbara Lane and Violet Sharpe for plaques; Josephine Aukstolis for oil cloth sets.

Meat, Not Metal
Metallic objects in feed for cattle contributed to a condemnation last year of nearly 2,400 beef carcasses and $1,000,000 worth of beef liver throughout the nation. A warning to all farm managers to be on the alert against pieces of metal when grinding feed has been issued. A check at Chicago and Omaha markets revealed metal in one-third of the condemned cattle.

Fish, Dive Bomber
The falcon is said to be the original "dive bomber," killing its flying quarry by dropping on it from a height of hundreds of feet. The speed of the dive has been calculated at 165 to 180 miles an hour.

TRIED AND TRUE SUGGESTIONS FROM CAMP ZAKALO

Pepp-up your child's appetite with cheerful, colorful tasty snacks. You will find yourself less prone to be tense and insistent during meals when you help your child "make-up" the difference between what you think your child should eat during his three meals and what he himself chooses.

Your child, too, will fidget and "act-up" less because he will find "mother" pays little heed to "urge, plead and force" not to say that awful word of which so many of us are guilty, "threaten." You will be comforted by the knowledge that you are increasing the child's food intake during the day with healthful "snacks."

Do you attribute your child's fussiness and being "out-of-sorts" to the later bedtime and harder play out-of-doors? Do look upon the lovely weather after the long winter months indoors as more than compensation. You will, when you "handle" this with extra food and resting times.

Call your child with a friend (the companionship angle is important). When they have washed and been seated—surprise them with mouth-watering Snacks.

In a short time, just the word "Snacks" will have the little people coming running. Children adore foods with gay, sounding names. You, too, will take pleasure in discovering that once in the habit of enjoying food your child will come in himself, actually go to the icebox and breadbox to prepare his own "snacks" and eat heartily.

Some Mothers will say moanfully—"not my child" but from tried an true experience "your" child will as so many other of our children are doing. Can you remember the tastiness of that "triple-decker" you concoct yourself? Children, too, delight in "making" their own favorites—just as do you.

One half cup butter, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 3 egg yolks well beaten, 1 bouillon cube dissolved in one half cup boiling water, salt and pepper to taste. Cook over hot water, never boiling, stirring until thickened.

Southern Baked Chicken
Prepare chicken for baking. When thoroughly clean dry it, rub a little salt and pepper on the side. Close incision with wooden skewers. Batter for dipping chicken: 1 egg, one quarter cup of milk, one quarter teaspoon salt and pepper, one quarter cup bread flour. Put chicken into the batter, turn it so batter covers chicken as much as possible. Then sprinkle one and one-half cups of crumbs mixed with one-half cup melted butter over chicken. Place in roaster, bake in oven 450 degrees for 30 minutes, 275 degrees for 3 hours.

Baked French Fried Potatoes
Peel and cut large potatoes into 3's lengthwise, brush with melted butter, put in greased baking pan into oven about 400 degrees until brown enough for your taste—salt well while hot.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 23, 1887

The charter of the encampment of Waban Lodge, I. O. O. F., has been granted and the encampment will be instituted soon after the first of May.

"Newton Seventy Years Ago" is published in this week's paper. The writer was a boy at the time of which he writes, and the manner in which the war of 1812 affected the residents of Newton is described in a graphic manner. The statement that the early settlers of Newton never thought that roads would be needed further west than Upper Falls, and the description of the one "weekly" coach to Boston, are in vivid contrast to Newton as it is today.

The Nonantum Worsted Company has been running its mill on eight hours' time this week.

A mid-day mail would be a convenience to many in the village.

If the money paid towards the placing of a clock in the Newton Highland's Congregational Church tower was loaned out at compound interest, possibly it might amount to enough by the time the clock is ready so that the subscriptions originally paid in might be refunded.

"What Does Newton Want Most?" As a fast growing town, we need immediately: 1. A hotel. 2. A street railway. 3. Electric lights. 4. A railway station at Mt. Ida. The first is supposed only by those whose ambition is to perpetuate this as a praying and sleeping place for Boston capitalists. The second is opposed by the comparatively few eminently respectable and genteel. The third is opposed only by those who are pecuniarily interested, either by dividends or as paid attorneys of an existing corporation. And the fourth is opposed by a small handful of individuals who logically (?) argue that the Boston & Albany railroad corporation has no right to interfere with their peace of mind by conceding anything that might proximately induce those "unwarranted" to ride on this road instead of the other. Let us then be up and doing!

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 22, 1892

The Easter offerings at the Grace Church, Newton, were large enough to pay the church debt, some $2450, and the parish is now for the first time in its history entirely free from debts of any kind. The morning offerings were over $2,000 and the balance was given at the evening service.

The small but necessary sum, $12, for the purchase of a mail box at the Newton Centre depot, has not yet been raised despite the convenience which it would be to Boston business men. The subscriptions are being solicited by Expressman Hesse and he has now thirty names on his paper for 25 cents each. This leaves $4.50 still unsubscribed. Considering the suggestions which have been made for a mail box, this small sum should easily be secured. Subscriptions can be left with the postmaster or Expressman, H. T. Hesse.

Newton Graphic, April 30, 1917

There was unusual interest taken in the meeting of the aldermen on Monday evening when action was expected to be taken on the granting of pony express licenses, and on a proposed public garage at Newton Corner, and there was a large attendance of interested citizens. The pony express matter fizzled out as the board, after some discussion, recommended the petitions to await action by Governor McCall on pending legislation on this subject. The garage petition was granted without debate.

The Mothers' Rest Association was the hostess of a patriotic ball at Bray Hall, Newton Centre, Saturday evening.

In appreciation of the recent action of the Stanley Motor Co. in establishing a nine hour day or a 50-hour week, the employees of that concern recently provided a handsome American flag which was presented to the Company late Wednesday afternoon. About 400 gathered at the factory and the flag was presented by Mr. Gray Blandy.

Poll On Water Bill Change Under Way

At the direction of Mayor Paul M. Goddard a poll is being conducted by City Treasurer Clarence C. Colby to ascertain how many of the water consumers in Newton would prefer to be billed on a semi-annual basis or by the present quarterly system. A form will be sent to each consumer with the next water bill which he will be asked to fill out specifying his preference. It will take several months to complete this poll as the bills are now mailed out on a staggered system, one third being sent out each month.

Mayor Goddard had recently asked the Board of Aldermen to consider the proposal of sending bills out twice a year, but action by the board has been delayed pending the outcome of the poll.

No More Materials For Road Repairs

Street Commissioner John D. Haughey has announced that because of an order issued by the War Production board shutting off the sale of asphalt and bituminous road materials, all road construction work and repairing of streets in the city will stop on May 9, the last day on which concerns dealing in these materials may supply products for any purpose other than for the building of airport runways and aprons.

The Commonwealth avenue project which was to have cost about $16,000, will have to be stopped a short distance beyond Rowe st. instead of extending it to Melrose st. as originally planned, and the cost will total about $6,000. The Washington st. project which was to have cost $40,000 for the section between the railroad bridge at West Newton and Commonwealth ave., can not be undertaken.

All available men have been placed on the two street acceptance projects on Buswell park and Cochituate rd. in order that they may be completed by May 9.

The betterment program was started about six weeks earlier than usual this year by Commissioner Haughey who had foreseen such an emergency and the work has been completed on Avondale rd., Newton Centre, Upland rd., Waban and Central ter., Auburndale.

Sewer and water main construction work will probably also be affected by the order from the War Production Board as the materials used to repave streets will not be available.

ELIOT MEN'S CLUB DEDICATES HALL

Thomas Cleveland, president of the Eliot Men's Club, has just announced that their new club rooms recently have been dedicated and the hall will be dedicated on the evening of Monday, May 18th.

One of Seiler's famous clam chowder and tenderloin of beef dinners will be served at 6:30. This will be followed by the dedication ceremonies which will be participated in by all organizations which have contributed to the new club rooms.

Reservations may be made at the Eliot Church Office or from Dr. Edwin P. Leonard, 352 Commonwealth st., or Thomas Cleveland of 405 Centre st., Newton.

This will be the Club's annual Ladies' Night and it is expected that the new hall will be filled to capacity.

ROTARY CLUB

Newton Rotary met at the Newton Y. M. C. A. at 12:15 Monday, May 4th. Luncheon was served by Rotarian Seiler, after which Kenneth S. Dale, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and member of Newton Rotary explained the renovations that have recently been completed. After lunch Mr. Dale and his staff took the members on a tour of inspection of the building. The members were very complimentary as to the appointments and changes. William T. Halliday, first President and honorary member of Newton Rotary, attended the meeting as a guest of M. F. Ruane.

Henrikus to Join Army As Captain

A leave of absence has been granted to Patrolman George M. Henrikus who is to join the U. S. Army as captain in a military police battalion. Henrikus is the sixth regular member of the department to join the armed forces. The others are Patrolmen William Howley, Edward Hickey, George O'Neil, Cornelius O'Neil and Warren Springer. Two men recently appointed to the reserve force, Martin Dalgay and John J. Regan, entered the Army before performing any actual police duty.

To Celebrate Fifth Anniversary

A reception in honor of the fifth anniversary of their service to the congregation will be tendered Rev. J. Franklin Knotts, D. D., and Mrs. Knotts on Friday evening, at the Newtonville Methodist Church.

Dr. Louis O. Hartman, editor of Zion's Herald, will speak. A musical program will be presented by the Foss Trio under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Foss, pianist. Refreshments will be served. Among the invited guests will be District Superintendent, Rev. William Gunther and Mrs. Gunther.

The committee in charge of arrangements are George W. Taylor, treasurer of the board of trustees; Carl S. Ell, president of Northeastern University and chairman of pastor relations; Frank A. Morrison, Mrs. Frank E. Morris, president of the Woman's Society for Christian Service; Mr. and Mrs. John Newton and Wayne Underhill, president of the Epworth League.

Appeals $50 Fine in Collision Case

Albert J. Nau of 16 Guyette rd., Cambridge, was fined $50 last Saturday morning in the Newton District Court by Judge James A. Delany on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a license to endanger. He appealed and the case will go to the Superior Court.

Nau was involved in a collision at West Newton on March 30 when his car which was proceeding west on Webster st. collided with a machine operated by Ruth M. Prendergast of 63 Elm st., West Newton, which was proceeding in a southerly direction on Cherry st. After hitting the Prendergast car, Nau's machine proceeded a short distance colliding with a beach wagon on Webster st. Edwin C. Foley of 749 Washington st., Newtonville, was the driver of the beach wagon.

West Newton Men's Club Election

At the annual meeting of the West Newton Men's Club held in the parish house of the West Newton Unitarian Church on Wednesday evening, April 29, Ernest C. Angove was elected president; Dr. Egon Kattwinkel, vice president; Max J. Hamant, secretary; Sidney P. French, treasurer, and Frank R. Mullaney, assistant treasurer. Members of the nominating committee were Roland F. Gammons, chairman, Benjamin J. Bowers and William F. Chase.

The meeting was conducted by Charles F. Hoxley, retiring president. A colored motion picture "New World's Unrests" was shown by Vincent Palmer.

Severely Injured When Car Strikes Pole

A car driven by Mrs. Leah B. Bogardus of 31 Forest st., Newton Highlands, crashed into a pole near 377 Beacon st., Newton Centre, shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday evening. Mrs. Bogardus, who was severely injured, was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Brooks Potter Is Named To Important Post

BROOKS POTTER

Newton is again honored with the appointment of a high official to the Greater Boston United War Bond (including the Newton Community Chest) in the naming of Brooks Potter of 70 Montvale rd., Newton Centre, as Metropolitan Division chairman of the 1943 campaign. Maynard Hutchinson of Newton, 1942 general campaign chairman, will serve as vice-chairman of the coming campaign.

"In such a time all of us must do what we conceive to be our duty," declared Mr. Potter in accepting the appointment from Charles C. Cabot, general campaign chairman. "I consider it my duty and great personal privilege to accept this job of helping to build campaign organizations in the numerous metropolitan communities. I know I can count on everyone for plenty of real help in this task—and never before in our history, the maintenance and even the very existence of the social service and health institutions in the Greater Boston area are endangered by the conflict which spans the globe."

Mr. Potter, who is a partner in the law firm of Choate, Hall & Stewart of Boston, has served with the Special Gifts Committee and the Speakers' Bureau in previous Fund campaigns. He is treasurer of the Family Welfare Society of Boston and chairman of its Metropolitan Service Committee.

Among many other activities Mr. Potter is president of the Chestnut Hill School and trustee of the Episcopal Theological School and Wheelock College. He was graduated from Harvard University in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1927.

CHURCHILL SENDS LETTER OF THANKS TO WABAN MAN

Harry J. Pearson of 140 Carlton rd., Waban, director of the Seamen's Club of Boston, has received a letter of appreciation from Prime Minister Winston Churchill for having named a pure bred English bulldog, new club mascot, in honor of the English leader. Pearson named the recently acquired dog Minature Lord Winchur and sent a picture of the dog to 10 Downing street to the prime minister. Mr. Churchill sent back a picture of an English bulldog with a dashnure, gripped in his teeth and bench it wrote: "By a merciful dispensation of Providence, the nose of the bulldog is slanted backwards so that it can breathe freely without relaxing the grip."

The letter also contained an expression of thanks for the care being taken of royal navy and merchant marine sailors in Boston at the Seamen's Club.

Announce New Military Course

The State Department of Education announces a new university extension course, "Military Administration for Company Clerks," planned to prepare volunteers or selectees for company clerical work in the U. S. Army.

The class will meet Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., starting May 14 and continuing for eight weeks.

The course will consist of lectures on Thursday evenings at the Gardner Auditorium, State House, and typewriter practice on Wednesday or Friday evenings, according to the wish of the students, at Stratford School, 128 Commonwealth ave.

The instructor is John J. Riley, Lt.-Col. of Infantry, M. N. G., retired, former Assistant Inspector-General, M. N. G.

The instruction is intensive and includes not only a study of the many complicated forms and records used in company administration, but also affords practice in the touch system of typewriting and in the execution of the different forms on the typewriter.

College Student Is Fined $25

Augustus H. Rice, 20, of 7 Hackfield rd., Worcester, who appeared in the Newton District Court on Friday morning on a charge of operating to endanger, was fined $25 by Judge David Nagle. He appealed and was held in $100 bail for the Superior Court. Rice, who is a college student, was the driver of a car which collided with a trailer truck owned by the City of Newton on the Worcester Turnpike on April 9. Dominic Colino of Newton was the driver of the truck.

Rice and Israel Becke of Worcester, owner of the car, both received severe injuries.

Aldermen Repeal

build anything there under present conditions," he asked, "if the zone were changed it would be an empty victory and a face-saving gesture for somebody."

He added that a proposition that would have solved the problem was made in good faith more than a year ago, with the approval of the neighbors, but the plan was turned down by the board and "the responsibility rests squarely on certain individuals."

"It was a chance to clean the mess up," he added.

The committee reported that it had placed on file the resolution of the Newton Highlands Improvement Association favoring the rezoning of the property. The organization adopted the resolution recently after the Board of Aldermen rejected the Planning Board recommendation that the entire district be changed from manufacturing and business to single residence zone.

Alderman James P. Akins of Ward 1 ventured to offer some advice, based on his own experience. He suggested that the board members clean up the site themselves, asserting that in his district he had made repeated efforts to prevail on officials to tear down a shack that was in a dangerous condition and he finally got a crowbar and did the job himself.

Drivers of city-owned motor vehicles lost their fight for insurance against claims for personal injuries when the board refused to accept Chapter 41, Section 100-A of the General Laws.

The board voted "no action necessary" on Mayor Paul M. Goddard's letter recommending consideration of the acceptance of the chapter, which authorizes cities and towns to indemnify city officers or employees "for damages incurred on account of injuries arising out of their operation of publicly owned motor vehicles."

Submitting the committee's report, Chairman George E. Rawson of the claims and rules committee asserted that in cities and towns where the statute had been accepted it had resulted in an increase in accidents.

Had the matter had been discussed with City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett and it was decided that the existing arrangement had been "working satisfactorily" and no statute could be called as having resulted from the present system.

Alderman Eugene A. Cronin inquired whether the attitude of the drivers had been ascertained. "No doubt they would welcome it," he said. He added, however, that in Boston and other cities where the statute had been accepted, the number of accidents had increased and "it cost considerable money."

The vote on the matter was not unanimous.

The board also voted "no action necessary" on the petition of the city employees for an "emergency salary adjustment" of $125 each for 1942 because of the increased cost of living. The aldermen had previously rejected a recommendation by the mayor that a bonus of not more than $75 be granted each employee.

The board received a communication from Mrs. Anna Seaver, widow of Henry Seaver, assistant chief of the Fire Department, petitioning for an annuity of $1,000. The assistant chief died suddenly recently while engaged in fighting a fire. The annuity is sought under the provisions of the statute which applies to policemen and firemen who die in line of duty.

After a spirited debate, the board granted the petition of Paul Kerivan for a change of place of business as junk collector from 12 Windsor rd., Waban, to 1149 rear Walnut st., Newton Highlands.

Kerivan was refused a renewal of the license for the Windsor rd. location after the board received protests from Waban residents. His efforts to find a new location encountered obstacles. He presented a petition last night for a new location at 869 rear Washington st., Newtonville, but Chief Clarence W. Randlett of the Fire Department refused to approve that location. The petitioner thereupon proposed the Walnut st. address.

Alderman Warner Eustis opposed action on the Walnut st. location, asserting that the matter be investigated first.

Alderman Howard Whitmore of Ward 5 also opposed action "on the spur of the moment."

"I want a chance to talk with the people in the vicinity," he said.

However, Alderman James P. Atkins made a strong plea that the petition be granted, asserting that the petition had been "chased out of Newton Centre, Waban and now Newton Highlands." He described Kerivan as an "honest fellow" and expressed the fear that he would be put out of business if there was further delay.

Alderman Hughes also favored the petition, pointing out that the petitioner had evinced a willingness to co-operate.

Whitmore demurred, asserting that the location was "practically adjacent" to a gas station.

Akins replied that the metal garage which the petitioner planned to use was 80 feet from the gas station.

President Charles B. Floyd pointed out that the license could be revoked if desired later.

The following were drawn for jury service at the Superior Court, Cambridge, at the first criminal session, to report Monday, June 1: Alfonso Panzera, 104 Westland ave., West Newton, barber.

Edward W. Hildreth, 305 Auburn st., Auburndale, laborer.

Charles J. Lawson, 12 Lombard st., Newton, sales manager.

A hearing was called on a petition of the Boston Edison Company and New England Telephone and Telegraph Company for a joint pole location on Boylston st.

Ward 5, northerly side and approximately 85 feet east of Cragmore rd. There was no opposition and the petition was granted.

The board authorized the expenditure of the following amounts by the Water Department for eliminating dead end mains: Cotton st., Ward 6, laying eight-inch pipe for a distance of 480 feet from Centre st. to Burrage rd., $2,630.

Warren ave., Ward 3, laying four-inch pipe for a distance of 232 feet north of Webster st., $980.

Kingman rd., Ward 5, six-inch pipe for a distance of 93 feet each of Manchester rd., $495.

An appropriation of $226.80 was granted the Library Department to make an adjustment in its pay roll.

The board granted renewals of auctioneer licenses to Arnold C. Barker, 78 Hyde ave., Ward 7, and Charles A. Malley, 233 Commonwealth ave., Ward 6.

The board also granted the petition of the Sun Oil Company for a permit to use a triangular parcel of land as an approach to the gas station at 325 Boylston st., Newton Centre. Alderman John Temperley voted in the negative, expressing opposition to the plan because the entrance would be "diagonal."

Recommendation that the diagonal entrances were "more dangerous." Chairman Rawson stated, however, that diagonal entrances were required by the Department of Public Works.

The board approved the appointment of Daniel J. Cooney, 50 Westchester rd., Newton, as a public weigher for the John Dolan Coal Company, at 153 Concord st., Newton Lower Falls.

Annual Outdoor Palava May 16

The annual Outdoor Palava of the Norumbega Council, Cub Scouts will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 16, from 2:45 to 6:30, on the site of the council's Cub Day Camp, adjoining Commonwealth ave., West Newton, near Newton City Hall.

The Outdoor Palava, climax of the cubbing season, brings together some 500 boys, aged nine to twelve, from Newton and Wellesley, with their parents and friends. Highlight of the afternoon program will be the colorful grand march at three o'clock, when the fifteen "packs" will parade in costume, following about the 1942 theme of "Pioneering." The march will be followed by athletic events for both boys and dads, after which some of the packs will provide some original entertainment. A picnic supper for Cub Scouts and their families will be served in costume, following about 5:30, and the final ceremony, at which prizes for the afternoon will be awarded, will take place at 6:15.

"Cubbing," the term applied to the activities for boys of pre-scout age, has been particularly successful in Norumbega Council, which was one of the first to become active in a movement now embracing over 225,000 registered Cub Scouts in the United States.

Congregationalists To Meet Here May 18-20

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

An intimate friend of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and one of America's leading and most beloved Quakers are among the speakers for the 143rd annual meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, to be held May 18-20 in the Second Congregational Church of West Newton, of which the Rev. Dr. Boynton Merrill is the minister.

Chiang Kai-Shek's friend is the Rev. Dr. George W. Shepherd of Jamaica Plain, for many years missionary in China and since 1934 General Kai-Shek's adviser in the "New Life" movement in that country. Like Pearl Buck, he knows China inside out. He will ask and answer the question, "Is the White Man Finished in Asia?" at the Wednesday afternoon session, May 20.

The Quaker is Prof. Rufus Jones of Haverford College, who will lecture Tuesday morning, May 19. The meetings are under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Ralph M. Timberlake, president of the Conference, and presiding will be the moderator, Rev. John Gratton of Pittsfield.

The election of officers May 20 will be marked by the retirement of Rev. Alfred V. Bliss as secretary after 13 years of service and the choosing of his successor.

Dr. Merrill will welcome the conference at its opening session Monday afternoon, and the keynote address will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Douglas Horton of New York, minister and secretary of the General Council of the Congregational and Christian Churches. Committee and department reports will take the rest of the session. Among them will be a discussion on "Where Does the Church Fit In Our Effort to Win the War?" led by Clarence C. Beasley of the Boston Y. M. C. A., with statements by Robert S. Pinkham of Bethany Church, Quincy, Manfred Klein of Leyden Church, Brookline, and Sterling L. Williams of Payson Park Church, Belmont.

The "Fellowship Supper" Monday evening at the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, will hear the Rev. Dr. Phillips Osgood of Emmanuel Church, Boston, with music by the chorus choir of the Church of the Armenian Martyrs in Worcester. At the conference service to follow in the Second Church, Dr. Merrill will lead in worship, and the sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge.

Following Professor Jones' lecture Tuesday morning there will be staff reports, buffet luncheons at the Second Church and the Unitarian Church in West Newton, and reports on student work, missions, weekday church schools and other interests.

The Rev. Dr. Walter V. Van Kirk, secretary of the Department of International Justice and Good Will of the Federal Council of Churches, will address the supper meeting Tuesday at the Central Church, Newtonville, on "The Church in a World at War." Rev. William E. Park, president of the Northfield schools, will preach at the service in the Second Church that evening.

President Mildred McAfee of Wellesley College will lecture at the Wednesday morning session. Then will follow the election of officers and committees and other business. Dr. Shepherd's address on "Is the White Man Finished in Asia?" is scheduled for an afternoon meeting devoted to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

Then will follow a meeting of the Council for Social Action, at which Dr. Robert C. Dexter, executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee, will describe "Progress in Our Effort for War Victims and Services," and Rev. Dr. Hugh Vernon White, Secretary of American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, will speak on "The Terms of Peace and Afterwards."

Later, Rev. J. Mendes Reis, minister of the Portuguese Mission in Lowell, will give "A Plane View of Portugal" and the Pelham Rural Fellowship, under direction of Rev. Harold B. White, will present a dramatization, "Ceremony of the Soil."

The meetings will conclude Wednesday night with a service of worship and communion, for which the preacher will be Rev. Walter A. Morgan, minister of the Chestnut Street Church in Worcester.

TRUCK DRIVER BITTEN

Struck and seriously injured by a truck in Newton Highlands last Monday night a white Spitz severely bit the driver of the truck when he came to the aid of the wounded animal.

The driver, Joseph Kelly, 26 Maple st., Watertown, went to the Newton Hospital for treatment, while the dog, owned by Herbert Chesley, 3 Sagamore rd., Newton Highlands, was taken to Dr. Lombard's Animal Hospital, 2285 Commonwealth ave., Auburndale. It was declared doubtful whether the dog would recover from its injuries.

Kelly reported to the police that the dog bit him on one hand when he approached the injured animal after the accident, which occurred about 6 p. m. Because of the danger of rabies, Kelly's wound was cauterized at the hospital.

The Club was addressed by its president, Charles Meeker, who is also Regional Evacuation Officer of Region V which consists of 41 cities and towns. He said that evacuation is a planned and orderly movement of victims of disaster from one section to another with the assistance of necessary services, and explained how this organization functions.

After considerable searching, the firemen located the source of the trouble as a short circuit in the dome light.

Many Appeal To Rationing Board For Higher Rating "Gas" Cards

confusion at the five registration places in Newton, a total of more than 7,100 motorists, estimated at over one-third of the total in the city, obtained gasoline ration cards on Tuesday, the first day for registering.

Only 11 per cent of the total registered received "X" cards, entitling them to an unlimited supply of gasoline, but the rationing board at City Hall was immediately besieged with appeals and applications for supplemental supplies from those who claimed that they required more gasoline and who believed they were entitled to it.

On Tuesday a total of about 30 per cent were given "A" cards, allowing three gallons a week for pleasure driving. The remainder, 59 per cent, received cards in the "B" classifications, the greater part of them being given "B3" cards, permitting the use of a total of 57 gallons for the period from May 15 to July 1.

The registration hours were extended Wednesday to avoid the congestion that resulted Tuesday. Because of the long waiting lines that formed at some of the registration places, particularly at the Warren and Weeks Junior High Schools, it was necessary to make emergency changes in the assignment of personnel to serve as registrars.

A great deal of the delay was due to the numerous arguments that developed between registrars and applicants over the type of card that should be issued.

Superintendent of Schools, Julius E. Warren, who was in charge of the registration in the city, expressed the opinion that the public had not been fully informed concerning the situation and many persons were under a misapprehension concerning the type of

City Solicitor Bartlett Wants Revision of Snow Removal Ordinance As It Applies to Street Railways

In line with recent revision of the city ordinance governing the operation of street cars, City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett of Newton has recommended that the Board of Aldermen further revise the ordinance by repealing the provision requiring street railway companies to remove snow from street on which their cars are operated.

The provision for a speed limit of eight miles an hour was recently repealed and in its place the Board of Aldermen set a speed limit of 25 miles an hour, except at curves where the limit was specified as ten miles an hour.

Repeal of the snow removal section of the ordinance considered out of date, will be considered at a meeting of the board next Monday evening. They are as follows:

"Whenever any street wherein the track is laid becomes in the judgment of the street commissioner, unsafe and inconvenient for travel, by reason of accumulations of snow and ice between the track and the sidewalk, the corporation using said track shall remove such snow and ice, when so directed by the street commissioner, and until the same is so removed, after such direction shall cease to run its cars over such track."

No person shall run a snow plow or remove snow from the tracks of a street railway in the streets of the city unless he removes from such streets, outside of the tracks and between the rails and the sidewalks, an amount of snow sufficient to make such streets safe and convenient for public travel;

Supervisor Warren said that he had been informed that the percentage of "X" cards issued in Newton Tuesday was "about right," based on estimates of the proportion entitled to such cards.

The registration places were the high school and the four junior high schools. Day, Warren, Weeks and Bigelow.

Court Fines Yield City Nearly $6,000

The annual report of the city treasurer, submitted to Mayor Paul M. Goddard, revealed that the city derived an income of $5,929.72 from court fines last year. The report showed that the Newton Free Library considered an income of $7,456. Other receipts for the year were City Home income, $321.20; dog tax, $9,593.40; fire income, $62.20; grants and gifts, $40,296; licenses, $3,373.25; motor vehicle excise tax, $305,957.97; peddlers' licenses, $30.00; permits, $877.10; police income, $14,118; recreation income, $2,248.98; school income, $1,280.70; treasury income, $327.

The total city debt was given as $5,539,000. Of that sum $2,804,000 is within the debt limit and $2,735 outside the debt limit. The debt limit is 2½ per cent on the average valuation of real estate, personal property and motor vehicles for the three preceding years. The city's debt limit is thus $4,401,811.

Eliot Men's Club To Dedicate New Club Rooms

The following is the message of Congressman Thomas H. Eliot of Massachusetts to National Conference of American Committee for protection of foreign born, Cleveland, Ohio, on May 9, 1942:

The vast majority of the 1,500,000 Italian and German nationals in this country, now classified as "enemy aliens," are not our "enemies" at all. Many of them have sons fighting for America. Many are refugees, sworn enemies of the Axis. While some have been detained as suspicious characters, it is common knowledge that most effective enemy agents are naturalized citizens.

Yet these aliens are subject, as a class, to wholesale evacuation drastic travel restrictions, and curfew laws. For instance, I know elderly Italians in Greater Boston who have several sons in the United States Navy. Those old people have never been naturalized. Now, though nobody questions their loyalty, they can be ejected from their homes and interned somewhere, not because anyone suspects them, but because they have been classified as "enemy aliens."

The establishment of the "enemy alien" classification last December was a necessary, though hasty, precaution. At least with respect to Italians and Germans, the time has come to reexamine the situa-

Tax Rate For 1942 Remains At $28.00

Loss of Gas and Other Taxes Does Not Warrant Lowering Rate

Stating that the financial condition of the city would be justified by a reduction of the rate this year, Mayor Paul M. Goddard announced, nevertheless, that the Newton tax rate for 1942 will be $28, the same as last year.

The decision to act in a conservative manner was made by city officials because of the present unsettled conditions which may affect the future and the belief in the wisdom of the policy of retaining large financial surpluses on hand to be prepared for any eventualities that the war might bring.

A factor that may prove important in next year's financial outlook is the motor car situation, which may reduce greatly the receipts from excise and gasoline taxes. As a matter of fact, in arriving at the tax rate this year, the estimates of receipts from such sources were greatly reduced.

The valuation of real estate increased $464,000 last year, and the assessed value of personal property rose $85,200, for a total gain of $549,600 in valuations. Because activity in the residential construction has virtually ceased in Newton, the outlook in this respect does not appear bright.

The mayor's statement, announcing the new rate, follows:

"The Newton tax rate for 1942 will be $28.00, the same as last year. This follows two reductions in successive years of $1.00 and $1.20 respectively. The present financial condition of the City would entirely justify a further reduction this year and had been contemplated by your City Government. After mature consideration, however, and with due regard to the many factors which may adversely affect the City for the duration of the war it has been decided as a further conservative measure to retain the present rate of $28.00. This action is taken as one step in a program of sound financial planning which becomes even more necessary in these unusual times."

W. C. T. U.

The annual meeting of the Newton W. C. T. U. was held on May 7th at the Newton Centre Parish House. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Walter P. Stevens of Newton Upper Falls, re-elected as President; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Everett C. Herrick, Mrs. George W. Barber, Mrs. Hobart F. Goewey, Mrs. William F. Ferrin and Mrs. Julia W. Keene; recording secretary, Miss M. Evelyn Morse; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Emory W. Clark; treasurer, Mrs. Sidney R. Porter; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Harriet W. Briggs; auditor, Miss Mary Manning.

Petitions were passed out to be signed by Newton voters during summer for Senate Bill 860 to stop the sale of liquor and to stop vice around army camps.

Reports were read by Mrs. George W. Barber that $700.00 was made by Xmas Seals for our associate organizations last year. Sale for blind for State brought $4,130 for our eleven clubs.

Mrs. John A. Groves came to the meeting after 7 months in the South. She represented legislative and press which had now carried on by Julia W. Keene, a new member, and Miss Lillian Thompson of Newton, long a worker for temperance.

Miss Morse read a report of our meeting at Y last month.

Mrs. Stevens read the Annual Report of Newton W. C. T. U.

The achievements of our Defense Program have been notable. The average attendance at our seven regular meetings, which were held in five of Newton's churches was good. About one hundred men and women attended the meeting of the West Newton and Newton Unions in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium April 6th. Our great publicity effort was put into this meeting. Time did not permit all of the Newton organizations to be represented at the meeting.

In the Round Table discussion, but as the meeting ended with regret that more questions could not be considered it was felt that this would lead to a more active interest and participation in our No License campaign in the fall and to the furtherance of the circulation of our petitions to Congress to hasten the early passage of Senate 860. The Newton Unions have persistently canvassed the city for a year and will continue until Senate Bill 860 is made law. From the many W. C. T. U. members of our Union this year featured "Our Church Schools," "Social Morality," "International Relations for Peace," "Christian Citizenship," "Evangelistic," "Youths Temperance Council," and "Membership."

In the membership campaign a national story writing contest was held, the subject being what each of the present forty-eight states had contributed to our government to make it worth to be represented by a star in our S. E. flag. The Massachusetts Star, written by Mrs. Julia W. Keene was unanimously awarded first choice. Miss Cora S. Cobb's "What the Star Saw," was rated second. These two stories are now being judged in the Middlesex County contest.

This project of this project was to have the women of each state renew their knowledge of what their state had contributed to our country to make it a democracy superior to the governments of all other countries.

The Evangelistic department, under the leadership of Mrs. Edward R. Kimball, contributed spiritual encouragement in our endeavor to free our Defenders from the sordid environment of many of our Defense Camps. The department of Christian Citizenship received able assistance in a city wide campaign to inform the people of the importance of supporting Sen. Maurice Sheppard's bill 860 which when passed will take out all alcoholic beverages from the Cantonment and also remove the cantonment and all other commercial vicious enterprises from the immediate camp areas. Petitions in favor of passing Senate Bill 860 have been circulated and signed by hundreds of relatives and friends of our brave Defenders. Our work is still going on. In our endeavor to build up organizations for children and young folks much time and thought have been given, but these projects are still in the initial stage. The Press work has been excellent and well received by newspapers. Our musical leader has generously contributed her talents to create an uplifting spirit.

W. C. T. U.

Contact with the Newton Federation of Clubs through the monthly executive meetings has given an important opportunity to publicize the need of defending our Defenders from alcohol poisoning. Your delegate has been very faithful as well as your president so that every meeting our Union has reported. Our treasury is sound, and we are constantly adding new members, as well as pledge signing by adults, boys and girls, has been encouraged. The hard work done by members has been appreciated, and good results have been obtained which amply repays us for the thought and time we have given to the service of our Master, Mrs. Edward R. RED CROSS STARTS NEW NURSE'S AIDE COURSE

Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., Chairman of the Nurse's Aide Corps of the Newton Red Cross, announced that a fourth class, fifteen in number, has started training at the Newton Hospital under Mrs. Stanley Hobbs, R. N. The training course is for 100 hours—the first half devoted to theory and the last half to actual practical work on the wards of the hospital. At the completion of the course, the Aides are ready to take their places as real assistants to the nurses in the hospital, and each must pledge herself to a minimum of 150 hours a year work for a four-year period.

It is of interest that, since January, 79 Nurse's Aides have been working in Newton, 12 of whom have already completed their minimum requirement.

Mrs. Moore says that the present class will be the last to be trained until fall, but that she is taking registrations now for future groups.

Last week the senior girls presented the annual graduation dress assembly. All senior girls and their mothers were invited to attend this display of appropriate apparel for graduation. Miss Jackson, opened the program by greeting the mothers and introducing Miss Muriel Cox, an outstanding style authority, who spoke on Suitable Graduation Dresses. Miss Cox, a former graduate of Newton High School, is high school Director of the Chamberlain School. She commented on different styles while girls modeled commercial dresses. These dresses were loaned by five of the large department stores in Boston. The girls who modeled had been chosen from senior English classes. They included Jane Drury, Ann Robinson, Martha Miller, Peggy Brink, Susan Shirley, Rosemary Fitzgerald, Natalie Needham, Janice Bail.

Newton Teachers' Federation

Recently the Newton Teachers' Federation held a meeting at the high school. The program was under the direction of Miss Helen White of the high school. Working with her were Miss Eleanor Richmond, Miss Florence E. Hickley, Mr. Jerry Angino, and Mr. Herbert Clark.

Following refreshments a skit, written especially for the occasion by Miss Helen White, was presented in the auditorium. The action took place in a school room where the "pupils" were being quizzed with silly questions which could be answered by the teachers' names or which were about the subjects of the various departments. Mr. Clark added to the fun with his witty remarks as the professor. The "students," dressed appropriately, the boys in knickers and the girls with hair ribbons, were acted by the following: Mr. John Whitelaw, general supervisor; Mr. Everett S. Pollard of Day; Miss Ruth Irvine of Carr; Miss Helen E. Conroy of Franklin; and Miss Genevieve Ford of the Hyde.

The affair closed with a business meeting which was presided over by the president, Mr. Brainerd. Officers were elected for next year. They are as follows: Miss Helen L. White, president; Mr. Redcliffe Morrill of Weeks, vice-president; Miss Helen E. Sullivan of Carr, secretary; and Mr. Edward P. Boulter of the trade school, treasurer.

Because of the pressure of rationing and other war activities the faculty issue of The Newtonite, which was to have been written entirely by the teachers and printed on May 20, has been cancelled.

"I Am An American" Day Program To Be Held With Exercises

President Roosevelt designated Sunday, May 17, as "I Am An American" Day and urged that it be observed in a manner to inspire in all citizens the duties and responsibilities in a nation at war.

This talk was followed by the serving of refreshments by the hostesses with a birthday cake with five lighted candles.

Three members brought early specimens of Iris which were blooming in their garden. Miss A. Gertrude Osborne brought a bouquet of many spring flowers which were in bloom in her garden. Many members have signed to plant the Victory Garden, the work of planting being started on Tuesday morning, May 13. This land was plowed and harrowed by a farmer, Mr. Hurley, age 82 years old of Oak Hill.

State Announces Two Extension Courses

The State Department of Education announces two intensive university extension courses, "Airplane Instruments," and "Preparation for Radiophone Operator's License," each closely tied up with the "Win the War" program, to start the week of May 18 at Harvard University.

The airplane instrument course is intended primarily for aircraft mechanics or students who desire more theoretical and practical knowledge of the subject and will be given by Alfred B. Johnson, Technical Sergeant in charge of Instrument Shop, U. S. Naval Air Station, Squantum, on Wednesday evenings, 7:45 to 9:15 p. m., beginning May 20, at Room 30, Sever Hall. The latest types of instruments and test equipment will be illustrated and discussed.

The preparation course for candidates for radiophone operator's license examination is designed for (1) men and women holding amateur radio operators' licenses; (2) men whose radiophone licenses have expired; and (3) experienced radio service men. At present, because of the army and navy requirements, there is a shortage of radio telephone operators for broadcasting stations. To relieve this condition, the Federal Communications Commission now permits standard Frequency Modulation or International Broadcasting Stations to employ second class operators provided there is a first class operator on the staff. This course will cover the subjects required for a second class license: Parts 3 and 5, Consulting Engineer, International Station WRUL, is the instructor and the class will meet Monday and Wednesday evenings, beginning Monday, May 18, at Room 36, Sever Hall.

THE 1942 TAX RATE

Announcement that the 1942 tax rate would remain at $28 per one thousand dollars of valuation, the same as the rate which prevailed last year, is based on sound judgment and good financial reasoning.

As Mayor Goddard rightly points out: "The present financial condition of the city would entirely justify a further reduction this year and has been contemplated by your city government. After mature consideration, however, and with due regard to the many factors which may adversely affect the city for the duration of the war, it has been decided as a further conservative measure to retain the present rate of $28."

Although some communities have announced drastic tax rate reductions for this year, these same communities will in all probability experience sharp and drastic tax rate increases next year should conditions remain much as they are now.

There is no doubt that should present conditions prevail for another year, many communities which have taken advantage of the past year's performance, will find themselves faced with a most difficult tax problem. Unquestionably, receipts from the gasoline tax, due to curtailment of use of motor cars, will result in putting a financial burden on every community in the State. The question of receipts from corporation and other forms of taxation also will probably shrink for 1943. Thus, some communities, in establishing a lower tax rate for this year, have ignored the inevitable drastic increase which they must face next year, should present conditions continue.

We feel sure that even though a somewhat lower tax rate for 1942 might well have been established, as hinted by Mayor Goddard, the policy of creating a cushion for loss of revenue for next year, will be agreed upon as good, common-sense financial policy.

THE DIM-OUT REGULATIONS

The dim-out regulations put in effect in Newton should be carefully obeyed. They are not drastic but they are essential. The local committee on public safety is expected to, and will, see that the rules established are complied with.

Newton, not being in the three-mile zone from the coast, has not had imposed on it the strict regulations which are in force along the coast. While some of the regulations established here may seem harsh, they are decidedly mild compared to coast communities.

Winthrop, for instance, is an excellent illustration. Here a splendid bit of work is being done by the civilian defense authorities. In the entire section of the town bordering the ocean to a depth of about a half mile, a dim-out doesn't exist — an actual blackout is in effect every night. Even in sections of the town at a considerable distance from the shore, an almost complete blackout is in effect. Every person must draw their shades each night, no matter in what part of the town the home is situated. All store window lighting as well as all outside lighting and display signs are prohibited. Street lights all over the town have been put out so that in certain sections only a part of the street lights normally put on each night, are now operated. The streets of the town are adequately and splendidly patrolled nightly by air raid wardens and auxiliary police. Autoists must not drive any faster than 15 miles per hour in any part of the town, and with dimmed headlights. If anyone thinks the edict established in Newton is drastic, let them try driving at night at 15 miles an hour with dimmed or parking lights as their sole illumination, particularly in a blackout.

But the army authorities have decreed that for the safety of our ships, the sky glow must be cut to a minimum. Let us do our individual part to help save these ships with their valuable cargoes, from destruction. Let us comply gladly with the orders of the Newton Committee on Public Safety and cooperate with this splendid organization in its effort to aid us as well as those who must, of necessity, be out on the high seas.

GASOLINE AND TIRE RATIONING

Friday of this week marks the start of the gasoline rationing edict. Tire rationing has already become a fact. With the rationing of these two integral needs of the motorist, one might well ponder the change which will be brought about as a result.

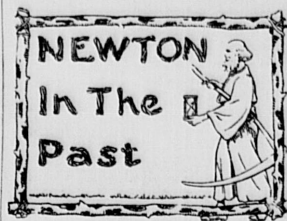

It is a conclusive fact that week-end jaunts are now out, unless one uses their car for just that purpose and that only. But it must be apparent that for most persons, the week-end rides are over, for a time at least. It must also be apparent that Newton residents, as is true of residents of other communities, will do less distant shopping with automobiles. They will not feel as free to take the car into Boston or other large shopping centers as they formerly did. These facts must be evident.

If they are, the results of a changed mode of living must also be accepted facts. Residents of Newton will do more and more of their shopping with local merchants. They will buy much more here than they did when there was plenty of gasoline available to take them to any large shopping center.

Thus local merchants must anticipate the needs of an increasing demand by their community. Local merchants, it would appear, have the opportunity to increase materially the volume of their business. To do that they must anticipate the needs and having anticipated them, advise the citizens of Newton of the excellent values that can be obtained here. This they can do by constructive newspaper advertising.

The gasoline rationing may not be felt by the average motorist this week or perhaps next week, but certainly if present rationing rules are maintained, only the most essential driving will be undertaken by June 15th. In this respect we must all face the facts. We are going to use our cars less frequently than heretofore. We are going to make our purchases conveniently and at the nearest point to our home. That point, we feel sure, will be with the merchants of Newton.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 30, 1887
The number of pupils in the High School is 455, and the average attendance is 423, a percentage of 93.2, which is a very good showing, and allows a very small margin for cases of illness and unavoidable absence.

The Legislature has voted to admit the petition of Wm. Claflin, Robert R. Bishop, R. M. Pulsifer and Henry E. Cobb, asking for the incorporation of the Newton Club, and the act will probably be passed next week. It will allow the club to maintain a club house and reading room, and hold real estate to the value of $100,000. The success of the project is well assured, and the Roberts' house in Newtonville will be used for the club house.

One of the most successful installations of electric lights is that started on the Boston & Albany railroad. They use the Julian system of batteries, and each car has 24 incandescent lamps including two outside, one on each platform. They use 16 batteries, and after being charged they run from 14 to 16 hours. The success of this system is so satisfactory that the railroad intends to erect a power plant this fall and use the waste cinders from locomotives for fuel. In a few years electric lights will be used on all railroads as a matter of safety. In case of accident if the lamps are broken the light goes out and in no case can it set the car on fire.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 29, 1892

Mr. J. Henry Bacon has put on a very handsome white and gold delivery wagon this week, which will call for and deliver all laundry orders, besides delivering anything purchased at the store, to any part of Newton. Such an evidence of increasing business shows that many Newton people patronize their home stores.

The efforts to have the streets kept clean and neat would be much helped if people would be more careful about throwing waste paper into the streets. The paper frightens horses, and even if torn into small bits proves more of a nuisance, as it is then almost impossible to gather it all up. The handbills that have been scattered about so plentifully of late do more to litter the streets and walks than all the travel that passes over them. The city authorities are striving to have model streets, and they ought to receive the co-operation of all citizens.

Our Methodist friends in Newton Highlands have purchased the lot of land on Erie ave. and Hartford st., opposite the school house, from the Edmunds estate, for a church site.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 27, 1917

The city is in the midst of a great movement to induce everyone to go back to the soil. Let us be sure that there is force enough behind the agitation to carry it through the hot and weary days of the coming summer. Otherwise the movement will result in an economic loss instead of a gain.

The agitation to stop the manufacture of liquor during the period of the war ought to be heartily encouraged. No better way to serve the country could be found than to require total abstinence of every citizen.

Readers of the GRAPHIC are reminded that the election of delegates to the coming Constitutional Convention takes place next Tuesday in this city and that it is of the utmost importance that only the best men should be chosen.

The seriousness of the garbage situation in this city was realized this week when Mayor Childs called a special meeting of the Aldermen on Monday night to consider the matter. $15,666.67 was appropriated for the work for the present year.

Man Rescued From Burning Bed

Hubert Denesha, 53, of 88 Warwick rd., West Newton, was rescued from a burning bed in his home on Friday evening by John Marshall, occupant of the upper apartment of the house, who, on noticing the smell of smoke, traced it to the Denesha apartment, and rushed to the rescue of Denesha who was partially overcome by smoke inhalation, but quickly revived when brought to the open air. He had been alone in the house, his family having been away for the evening.

Mrs. Marshall summoned the fire apparatus by phone while her husband was assisting Mr. Denesha to the street. Engines 2 and 4 and Ladder 1 responded. The blaze, which was confined to the bedroom, was quickly extinguished. The house is owned by Lawrence Laughlin of 472 Waltham st., West Newton.

Local Flyer In Broadcast From Pearl Harbor

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Osborne of 450 Crafts st., West Newton, had the pleasure of hearing the voice of their son, Lieut. Lloyd B. Osborne of the Naval Air Corps, in a broadcast given last Thursday afternoon from the seaplane control tower at Pearl Harbor, when he and several other officers gave brief talks. In order that they might be listening in, Lt. Osborne had sent his parents a cablegram on Wednesday. Shattuck Osborne, another son, and his wife, of Arlington, were at the home of Mr. Osborne's parents to listen to the broadcast.

Lieut. Osborne formerly flew the China Clipper as a commercial aviator. He was in business in Honolulu when called into service in February, 1941, he being a reserve officer. His wife and two children are with him in Honolulu.

When a senior at Yale, Lieut. Osborne was captain of a swimming team that journeyed to Japan to compete with a Nipponese college team. He was also a member of an Olympic swimming team and held the international record in the 440-yard swim for two years.

14 ROUNDED UP

Driver Seeks Aid For His Victim, Then Disappears

Mrs. Helen Connors, 53, a registered nurse, who resides at 279 Tremont st., Newton, was struck by an automobile in Newtonville Square about 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, May 6. Witnesses of the accident told the police that the driver picked up the injured woman, was heard to mention the name of a physician and then drove off, but no one had noticed the registration number of the car. A pair of eyeglasses and several other articles which the woman had dropped were turned over to the police.

The police later learned that the driver had taken Mrs. Connors to the offices of several physicians and not finding any of them in, took her to the office of a physician in Brighton, where she was treated for her injuries. The driver, however, left without leaving his identification. The police are working on a clew which they expect will help to locate him.

Falls From Moving Car When Door Accidentally Opens

When the door of a beach wagon in which he was riding suddenly opened, James Connell, 4 years old, of 24 Court st., Newtonville, was thrown to the ground. The accident happened Monday morning on Homer st., Newton Centre, near the City Hall. The child was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. He received bruises about the head, hands and knees.

Gath Guards Honor Member on Entry Into Armed Forces

John J. MacDonald of 377 Linwood ave., Newtonville, who recently joined the U. S. Army and left on Saturday for Camp Devens, was tendered a farewell reception on last Thursday evening at the Show Boat in Wrentham. MacDonald is the 24th member of the Gath Guards to join the armed forces. He has been prominent in amateur theatricals, was the organizer of the Waltham Moose Minstrels in which he appeared as end man, and won the state championship in Fall River for conducting the State Moose Glee Club. He was a member of Co. E, 26th Infantry, M. S. G.

A red, white and blue color scheme formed the decorations in the dining room for the occasion. Entertainment was furnished by Motorcycle Officer Jack McGrath, Officer James McHugh, Ray Sullivan and James Fitzsimmons. Harry Gath made the presentation of a purse of money.

Those in charge of arrangements were Joseph Green, James Petrillo, Ernest Sullivan, Larry Quinn, Ralph Pollock, Walter Cominsky, Ronald Pottler and Frank Farrell. The hostesses were Helen Hart, Kay McNeil, Catherine McHugh, Agnes MacDonald, Margaret Birmingham and Mrs. Anastasia Bland.

tion and correct the injustices which were necessary at first. The "enemy alien" classification hurts morale and tends to cause the public to demand drastic action against aliens as such—when the fifth column menace is primarily not an "enemy alien" menace at all.

The handling of Austrian nationals shows that proper safeguards are possible without classifying people as "enemy aliens." The Austrians are not so classified. The F. B. I., however, retains the right to hold individual Austrians on suspicion. Likewise the Army could order individual Austrians to move away from critical areas. But Austrians as a group—and there are more than 200,000 of them—are not stigmatized as "enemy aliens."

It might be wise promptly to treat all Italian aliens in the same way. We all know that the vast majority of them are loyal to America. The wholesale evacuation of Italians from the East Coast or West Coast would be unnecessary, unwise and unjust. The same is certainly true with respect to German refugees. Individuals who were suspected of wrongdoing could be picked up by the F. B. I. without any wholesale condemnation of hundreds of thousands of honest, pro-American people.

I urge that, at least, certain groups of Italians and Germans be removed immediately from the "enemy alien" status. These groups would be:

- (1) Parents or close relatives of men serving in the armed forces of the United States;
- (2) Wives and minor children of American citizens;
- (3) Expatriates of Germany and Italy;
- (4) Aliens over 60 years old, who have lived here since 1924;
- (5) Members of cloistered orders;
- (6) Aliens whose examinations have been completed and who are now awaiting final action on their naturalization.

Italian and German nationals not included in these groups should be allowed to apply to hearing Commissioners for similar reclassification. They would have to fill out questionnaires and produce supporting witnesses or affidavits. Decision as to their status, or as to the need for further investigation, would rest with the Commissioners.

All aliens would remain subject to detention by the F. B. I.—but they would be subject to such detention as suspected individuals, rather than as members of an "enemy alien" class. We have got to get away from the fallacy and misleading notion that the million and a half "enemy aliens" are more dangerous than anybody else.

Action with respect to Japanese aliens on the West Coast has gone much further than anything concerning Italians and Germans. Therefore the Japanese problem must be treated separately, at least for the present. Our wisest move now is to reclassify the Italians and Germans on an individual basis, not on a group basis. We can do so without weakening our self-protection in the slightest degree. We should do so, as a measure which will promote national unity and may help us keep our heads and arms above water in critical days ahead.

Fay Wray At Summer Theatre

The Cambridge Summer Theatre will carry on its outstanding season of plays when it presents next week a new play starring Fay Wray, lovely screen star. The opening will be a distinguished one, attended by socialites, motion picture producers, and the outstanding critics of both New York and Boston, for it is not only the opening of a promising new play with a great star but also a benefit for the Naval Relief Society.

Caught After Eluding Police Five Months

After he had eluded the Newton police for five months by giving a false name and address, Frederick G. Pearson, 42, of 52 Chestnut st., Weston, was apprehended by the traffic bureau and in the Newton District Court was sentenced to serve four months in the House of Correction and fined $70.

It was alleged that on December 5, when he was halted by Motorcycle Officer William L. Whelan on Brighton Hill for speeding, he gave the name of the husband of the woman who owned the car. The man whose name he gave was located, but he convinced the police that he was not the offender.

He again gave a false name and address on April 28 when he was caught after a chase by Motorcycle Officer John F. Fitzsimmons. The jail sentence was imposed on each of two charges of driving after his license had been revoked. He was also fined $25 on each of two charges of giving a wrong name and address and $50 for speeding. Wray was given time to pay the fines.

The house of English type of architecture is built of brick and stucco and contains seven rooms, two baths and first floor lavatory, together with a 2-car attached garage. After some improvements to the premises, the purchasers plan to occupy the new residence. For tax purposes the Town of Bedford has assessed the property at about $15,000.

The office of Charles J. Kinchla reports the sale of the modern dwelling located at 11 Stearns st., Newton Centre. The property consists of about 7500 square feet of land, together with a Colonial residence containing seven rooms and bath and a one-car detached garage. Title was conveyed to Edward J. Montana by Thomas R. Nunan.

A conference on "Aviation Education" will be held in Belmont on Friday of this week. Its purpose is to discuss ways and means of increasing educational offerings in this field.

Telephones rationed too?

NOT RATIONED, exactly, but the new order of the War Production Board may result in some restriction of telephone service.

Neither the War Production Board nor the Telephone Company wants to restrict telephone service, but telephone plant requires rubber, copper, lead, zinc, tin, aluminum, and other metals. These days, every pound of copper and every ton of steel available is being diverted to the war job.

Copper, for example, goes into the wiring system of every bomber, fighter plane, cruiser, destroyer, submarine. It also goes into shells and cartridges. It is more useful there, to you and to the Country, than it would be in telephone cables for any but the most essential needs. These essential needs, including those of the Army and Navy, of public utilities and of Civilian Defense, of Public Health and Safety, are being fully met and will continue to be.

How will it affect you? Perhaps not at all, perhaps to a great extent. Extension telephones, for example, can no longer be installed except in a few essential cases. If you move, you may not be able to have telephone service or, if service is available, it may be on a line shared with neighbors.

So, if you learn through our local Business Office that it is impossible to give you the service you want, we hope you will know that our regrets are sincere, and that every pound of copper saved will help speed Victory.

While telephone service may not be available to all who want it, that is something that neither the Government nor the Telephone Company can help. Your co-operation with us and with your neighbors will help to keep service available to as many people as possible.

Display of Cub Pack 15 In Window at 351 Auburn St.

A Cub makes things with his hands. This fundamental principle of Cubbing is well demonstrated by the exhibition of the Cub Pack 15, as shown in the articles on display in the windows of a vacant store at 351 Auburn st., Auburndale.

Each year in Norumbega Council, the Cubbing division has a different theme, on which all of the packs work during the year. This year the theme was Pioneerism in all of its different phases. The exhibit was set off by a background of blue and yellow, the Cub colors.

In keeping with the theme of the year the preponderance of the exhibit consisted of wooden models of the old plainsman's musket. The Cubbs fashioned these themselves from wood, and fitted them out with odds and ends of metal. Several conkskin caps, powder horns, bullets, pouches, and other articles of the frontiersmen's equipment are also to be found in the display.

One den, under the guidance of one of the Cub dads, had built a whole fleet of racing yachts. The boys actually cut out the hulls from blocks of wood, and made each individual part themselves. Hours were spent in accomplishing this, but the enthusiasm of the Cubbs was so great that they put in much more time beyond that of their regular Den meeting hours to finish the boats.

Another interesting exhibit was a series of pictures, showing the development of the early steam trains. These pictures were collected and mounted by the boys of another den.

A settler's cabin, complete with its stockade was also prominently displayed. There were many covered wagons in various styles but all following the models of the "prairie schooners" which once dotted our western plains.

Another feature was a grouping of the various handbooks that the Cubbs use for their different ranks, about a colored picture of a den meeting.

Last year the theme was Indian lore, and from that were a number of Indian head dresses and tom-toms.

In case that any of the readers do not know what Cubbing is, Cubbing is a part of the Boy Scout movement. It is a home centered parent-boy affair, which takes in the boys between the ages of the nine and twelve. The boys are divided into Dens. These Dens meet weekly, in the afternoon, at the home of one of the mothers, who is the leader of the Den, and these meetings the boys do the work which is on exhibition. A number of dens make up a Cub Pack. A Pack meeting is held once a month at which the parents as well as the boys attend.

Pack 15 is completing one of its most successful years under the able leadership of Cubmaster Philip Shute. It has a membership of 52 Cubbs. The exhibit was arranged by the chairman of the Pack committee, George G. Broadhead and by Curtis Reed the assistant Cubmaster.

This exhibit shows what can be accomplished by younger boys working with and under the supervision of their parents. Family solidarity is perhaps needed now more than ever, and this whole Cubbing program is founded on parent-boy cooperation.

Cub Pack 15 of Auburndale held its last meeting of the year Wednesday evening, May 20th. Cub Master Philip C. Shute, who has led Pack 15 since 1936, presented his resignation. In appreciation of his leadership, the Cubbs and Parents of Pack 15 presented Mr. Shute with a statuette and a twenty-five dollar war bond. Mr. Shute is now Commissioner of Cubbing for Norumbega Council. The new Cub Master will be Mr. R. Curtis Reed of Auburndale.

Gasoline and Tire Shortages Basis of Arguments Over Proposed New Bus Line

The shortage of gasoline and tires formed the basis of arguments both pro and con at hearings held Monday night by the Newton Board of Aldermen on two petitions for the extension of bus service on the south side of the city.

The proponents were residents of the Oak Hill and Charlemont districts that would be served by the desired bus service and the opponent in each instance was the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company, which would be called upon to furnish the service.

While Attorney Francis B. Turner, representing the company, based his argument largely on the statement by Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, the leader of one of the groups of petitioners, Arnold Hartmann, Oak Hill builder, countered with a proclamation by Governor Saltonstall.

The representative of the bus concern quoted Eastman as follows: "Extensions of existing bus routes and inauguration of new routes should be made only to places of defense employment and military and naval establishments or to meet similar situations where failure to provide such additional service will have a definitely unfavorable effect on the war effort."

To which Hartmann replied by quoting Governor Saltonstall's Executive Order No. 11 as empowering the Department of Public Utilities to:

"Order or permit any common carrier of passengers to provide additional transportation services, equipment or facilities in any city or town or in any part of the Commonwealth."

"Orders or permits may be issued pursuant to this paragraph," the Executive Order was further quoted by Hartmann, "without public hearings whenever the Department shall have determined that the public convenience or necessity requires that such additional services, equipment or facilities be provided."

The petition for which Hartmann spoke called for the extension of bus service from the junction of Dedham and Brookline sts. to the Brookline town line, or further to James circle.

The other petition was for the extension of bus service from the intersection of Walnut and Center sts., Newton Highlands, along Center st. to Winchester st., along Winchester st. to Nahanton st.

Among the others who spoke in favor of the Oak Hill petition were Charles Raymond Cabot, a trustee of the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Henry S. C. Cummings of 33 Oak Hill st., and Harold F. Tracy, president of the Oak Hill Improvement Association.

Cabot stated that the Peabody Home has 49 employees, 14 of whom now use their own cars. He added that the Home had been designated as a relief institution for the hospital of Boston in the event of an emergency. He said the Home "is up against what all

Blaisdell Heads Bryant & Stratton

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of Bryant & Stratton School on Friday, May 8, Richard H. Blaisdell, 129 Arlington st., Newton, was elected President.

RICHARD H. BLAISDELL

Mr. Blaisdell followed in the footsteps of his father who was president of the School from 1917 until the time of his death last February.

Mr. Blaisdell received his early education in Newton. After being graduated from Newton High and Bryant & Stratton, he attended Bowdoin College where he was elected to membership in Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. While at high school he worked Saturdays and vacations as a messenger for the Beacon Trust Company, as an usher at Symphony Hall, and one summer as a surveyor's assistant for the City of Newton. After college, he entered the business world, first with the banking house of Estabrook & Company, and then the United Fruit Company in their accounting department.

A desire to enter the private school field caused him to resign from the latter concern to accept a teaching position with the McAllister School in Concord where for two years he taught and assisted in coaching. In June, 1924, he married Nadine Howlett of Malden and in September joined the faculty of Bryant & Stratton where he became successively teacher, examination head, Placement Manager for 14 years, Director of the Summer and Evening Schools, and Vice-President, Clerk, and Director of the Corporation.

Mr. Blaisdell has always been interested in traveling. His first long trip was by automobile to California including the Yellowstone Park and Grand Canyon. His companion on this trip was Llewellyn P. White, present Treasurer of the School. More recently he has visited Mexico, Cuba and the Canal Zone. On the trip to Mexico and Cuba, Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell were accompanied by their children, William and Nancy, both of whom attend Newton schools. Another interest of Mr. Blaisdell's is photography and he has a splendid collection of colored movies of different places where he has traveled. He also enjoys music and sailing, activities in which his whole family can join.

Mr. Blaisdell is a director in the Back Bay Association, Chairman of the Membership Committee of the Association of Business and Secretarial Schools, a member of Dalhousie Lodge, Eastern Commercial Teachers' Association, the Massachusetts Schoolmasters' Club, and a charter member of The Exchange Club of Boston.

Newton Marine Reported As "Missing"

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tucher of 301 Lexington st., Auburndale, have received word from the Marine Corps that their son Private Joseph W. Tucher was reported "missing in action" at the Manila Bay area in the Philippines.

Private Tucher is the third Newton boy to be reported missing in action. The first was William J. Kerr of Newton Upper Falls, sailor lost in the Battle of Java, and the second, Charles M. Brown of Newtonville also of the Navy was recently reported missing somewhere in the Pacific.

Private Tucher enlisted in the Marines in October, 1940, at Houston, Tex., after leaving Oglethorpe University in Georgia, where he was a student. He was sent to the United States for a few months' training and was then stationed in the Philippines.

He was at Marivales, Bataan, when he mailed his last letter to his family in November, but from information received from Lieut. Col. Tucher's father, it is believed that his son was at Corregidor before that fortress fell.

Health Board To Revoke Licenses

The latest bulletin issued by the Health Department of the City of Newton shows that 125 establishments in the city, 11 were rated as "unsatisfactory," 25 as "fair" and the rest as "good." These ratings were based on the bacteriological examinations of specimens from drinking utensils.

The average bacterial count was less than 100 per utensil, "fair" when the count was 101 to 500, and "unsatisfactory" when the count was over 500.

The Board of Health has announced that it will recommend the revocation of licenses of the common victuallers licenses of the places rated as "unsatisfactory" be revoked.

The tests, which were made by the Health Department inspectors, included the school cafeterias, which were all rated as "good," cafes, lunchrooms, drug stores, spas, hotels, drinking places, delicatessens and candy stores where soft drinks are served.

Newton Youth Is Killed In Action

Mrs. Maybelle Thompson of 504 Watertown st., Newtonville, has received word from the War Department that her son, Stephen W. Robinson, was killed in action in the Philippines. He was 20 years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Robinson of West Cummington. He formerly lived in Georgetown and was graduated from the Georgetown High School in 1940. In December of that year he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and in October, 1941, was sent to the Philippines. His father, who served in the first World War, has been a patient in a veterans' hospital for 18 years.

Newton Employees End Strike Monday

ALDERMEN REJECT PETITION TO EXTEND PARKING AREA

Board Repeals Ordinance That Required Snow Removal By El

The Newton Board of Aldermen heeded the protests of neighbors and rejected the petition of Alphonse J. Comeau for a permit to extend an auto parking area to 40 Chapel st., Nonantum, after a hearing was held on the matter Monday night.

The board accepted the unfavorable report of the claims and rules committee on the petition after Chairman George E. Rawson reported that at the hearing held by his committee last night, abutters at the rear of the lot objected to the proposed extension of the parking area. The land is located in a private residence zone and the present parking space is operated as a "non-conforming use," having been used for the purpose before the zone was changed in 1936.

The board unanimously repealed the provisions of the ordinance that required street railway companies to remove snow from streets where its cars are operated. City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett had recommended the repeal because that the street commissioner has charge of all snow removal.

The sum of $680 was appropriated to continue the operation of the bus that transports 28 Newton WPA workers to and from Fort Devens. The sum will cover the period from May 20 to June 30.

The board also appropriated $490 for a water main extension by the Water Department in Pierpont rd., Newton Lower Falls.

The sum of $50 was appropriated for the Fire Department for the installation of wiring to control the air raid warning sirens from the lower parts of the buildings on which they were installed.

After the street traffic committee reported that six residents of the street opposed the measure at a hearing, the board denied the petition of Dr. Thomas Morton Gallagher for a one-hour parking limit on Channing st., Newton Corner.

The board appropriated $219 in settlement of the claim of David Keefe, member of the Fire Department, for expenses resulting from an infected finger suffered while he was painting fire apparatus hile on duty.

Rival bids received for a lot of 4,509 square feet of land between 89 and 95 Norwood ave., Newtonville, created a stir for a time.

The Finance Committee recommended the sale of the land to Rivaireous H. Wright, who had offered $125 for the parcel but had raised it to $300 when the original bid was termed inadequate.

At the same time the board received an offer of $300 for the land from Mrs. O. L. Paquette.

Chairman Carl F. Schipper, Jr., of the finance committee said the committee recommended the acceptance of Wright's offer because it was raised to $300 before Mrs. Paquette's offer was received.

Alderman James P. Akins inquired whether Wright's latest offer had been made in writing and, receiving a negative reply, he raised a charter objection which automatically deferred action on the matter. He explained that Mrs. Paquette had asked him about the property and he had advised her to submit an offer in writing.

Objection Upheld

President Charles B. Floyd upheld the charter objection and the matter was deferred until the next meeting, June 1.

The board received an offer by Cedric E. Schofield of $225 for a city-owned lot of land on Bernard st., Ward 5, as "inadequate."

A favorable report was voted on Milton C. Allen, 587 Chestnut st., Waban, as an applicant for a certificate of incorporation of the Agricultural Council of New England.

The following petitions were granted:

Boston Edison Company and New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., joint petitions re-exist-ing poles, viz:

Relocation—Berwick rd., Ward 5, opposite Saxon rd., set one pole and remove one pole.

Relocation—Chestnutfield rd., Ward 3, approximately 50 feet south of Oldham rd., set one pole; approximately 65 feet, south of Oldham rd., remove one pole.

Locations, Morton st., Ward 6, south of the intersection of a point approximately 80 feet southeast of Mill st., five poles.

State Inspectors Assigned To Newton To Probe Gas Ration Cards

Two inspectors of the State Department of Public Works have been assigned to assist the Newton Rationing Board in investigating the registration for gasoline ration cards and in passing on applications for supplemental quantities.

The inspectors, who have been trained for the purpose, have been assigned to Newton for a period of ten days, during which they will examine the registration records, particularly those of the B3 and X classifications.

The inspectors reported at the office of the Rationing Board to Arthur Campbell, rationing administrator. Only one X card had been returned to the Rationing Board yesterday. Campbell revealed. He added that some holders of B3 cards had indicated a willingness to surrender the cards and accept lower rations.

The X card that was returned yesterday had been obtained by an unpaid government official and he decided to surrender it when he learned that to be eligible for an X card a government attache must show that at least 90 per cent of the use of the car is devoted to government work.

Although hundreds of persons have called at the rationing board office to seek supplemental cards and each was given an application blank to fill out and return, comparatively few have been filed thus far. The applications for supplemental supplies must be signed by both the applicant and his employer and each signature must be witnessed by a notary public.

In view of the fact that the total number of ration cards issued was 17,300, the Rationing Board faces an enormous task. The X cards, of which there were less than 1,800, will be reviewed first and those found to have obtained them without being eligible will be compelled to surrender them.

The Rationing Board has taken up quarters in the office of the Public Buildings Department on the second floor at City Hall, William B. Baker is chairman of the board.

NEWTON In The Past

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 7, 1887

The opening of the Newton Post Office between the hours of 5 and 6 p. m. on Sunday, and the sending away of a night mail, seems to meet the approval of the public, as a bushel or more of letters were received last Sunday. The late Saturday night mail was distributed, and there was a large number of callers.

The lace factory, which was started in Newton in the early days of its history, was located on the corner of Galen and Williams sts., and the latter street was then called Lace Factory Lane. The large house on the corner is a portion of the factory.

Our City Council will probably be interested in knowing the real reason why they passed the order for electric lights. The Saturday Evening Gazette, which in its last issue takes all the credit to itself for the action of the council, says "many of the members are regular subscribers of the Gazette," and so they could not help voting for the electric lights after reading "the excellent commentary" in this paper last week upon electric lights. We infer that the reason Councilmen Gore and Alderman Pettie did not vote for the lights was because they are not regular subscribers to the Gazette. The Newton Electric Light and Power Company should see that these gentlemen are supplied with this valuable paper at once.

A reader of the GRAPHIC wishes to know if it is the custom of the city to build a block and then cut the street down to fit it, as is being done on Washington st.

How convenient it would be to have some place at the Highlands where gas bills might be paid.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 6, 1892

Coal has gone up 50 cents a ton for stove size, and 25 for larger sizes, owing to the exactions of the coal trust. Evidently every family in the land will have to contribute to the profits of this great monopoly.

Mr. S. W. Lyons has returned to his old position with Mr. Pierce as he did not find the hills so green out west as they looked from Newtonville. There is no place like home.

The Newton & Boston street railway company has commenced work laying tracks on Homer st. and has also made a start from the Upper Falls end of the route.

Messrs C. F. Eddy & Co. of West Newton have purchased the coal and wood business formerly carried on by the late Capt. B. C. Baker and will continue the same at the old stand. Mr. C. L. Markham who has been in the business from the start will remain in their employ and have charge of the Auburndale yard.

A location has been granted for an electric road through the Highlands to the Upper Falls. Some are glad and some are sad.

24 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 4, 1917

The attention of every person who paid a personal property tax in the city of Newton last year, is invited to the provision of the present law which requires the local assessors to tax them not less than the same amount as in 1916, unless a sworn statement is filed with assessors before May 15. In other words, such persons will be the victims of double taxation, through the state income tax, and the local tax, unless the law is fully met. Consult the assessors at once.

Let us have total abstinence, at least, and national prohibition if possible, when we are at war, and with the hope that if this established, there will be no return to present conditions, when peace and good will are again on earth.

A group of Newton men and women, acting with the pastors of the churches and with the officers of the local Y. M. C. A. are sending out an appeal to Newton citizens, asking them to share in a nation-wide movement for safeguarding the young men who are enlisting in the Army and Navy. It is hoped that $10,000 will be raised for huts in the war zone.

Rotary Club

Newton Rotary Club met at Brae Burn Country Club, May 18, 1942, at 12:15.

The speaker was Past District Governor Harry A. Starr, who instead of giving a regular address, used a Rotary quiz for his program. It was a very interesting time, and enjoyed by all, and gave each member a better understanding of the organization. Other questions were also inserted from time to time which added to the program.

Robert A. Murray is leaving this week to join the Army, and the Club gave him a fine send-off. President Charles L. Meeker again called to our attention that we should adopt as a slogan "Club Up and Come to an Up and Coming Club." Dr. Philip A. Enholm took President Charlie at his word and organized the Newton Corner Group to help carry on in spite of gasoline rationing.

NEWTON POST 48, TO PRESENT THE CINEMA OF YESTERYEAR

On Thursday, May 28, Newton Post, No. 48, American Legion, will sponsor an old time motion picture show, in the Newton High School Auditorium. There will be a performance for the school children at 3:30 p. m. The evening entertainment will start at 8:00 p. m. The proceeds of the afternoon performance will be donated to the First Aid Equipment Fund for the school children. The evening proceeds will be used for the Welfare Work of Newton Post.

This presentation will take the form of an interesting, good-natured, yet worthwhile silent review of the motion picture, from its earliest days to the present. It will bring back the days of the old-time motion picture show.

It will recall that night, not so long ago, when you tripped off to the Bijou. It will enable you to close your eyes, and to imagine that you have taken a seat in your favorite packed hall. Perhaps the organ is getting you in the proper mood. The audience has become quiet. It is time to start. The pianist strikes down the middle C. There is a burst of applause—a spirited march, and off go the lights. On comes the slide, "Welcome"—the show is on.

But wait! A request is flashed on the screen: "Ladies Under 45 are Requested to Remove Their Hats." Every bonnet is removed. Now the action quickens as the hero approaches on horseback. The music from the piano represents the perfection of the art of synchronization. Sometimes there is a ravenous flood to be battled.

We can hear the raging torrents, though the pianist is silent, because the pianist knows how to give "voice" and "sound" to these scenes. While the picture is being changed, or more likely repaired, a soloist sings the old thrilling tunes of yesteryear: "After the Ball Is Over," "Come, Josephine, In My Flying Machine," or "A Bicycle Built for Two." On yes, the words will be illustrated on beautifully colored slides. And you will be expected to join in the chorus.

You will be able to see again, in all their glory, Mary Pickford, Marie Dressler, Mabel Normand, Ben Turpin, John Bunny, Henry B. Walthall, the Keystone Cops, Lillian Russell, the original little dices, the little colored girl who "Fartina" of "Our Gang" Comedians turned out to be a boy, and is now Private Allen Hoskins of the 47th C. M. Regiment at Camp Ord, California.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Massachusetts Bankers Association will be held on May 22nd at the New Ocean House, Swampscott. It was announced by David E. Herse, President of the Association, and Vice President of the State Street Trust Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

Due to war conditions the Committee has arranged a one-day streamlined intensive work program at which important current banking and financial subjects will be discussed by well-known national figures. The following speaker will appear on the program:

William Powers, Director, Customer Relations, American Bankers Association.
J. Franklin Ebersole, Edmund Cogswell Converse Professor of Banking and Finance, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, and Treasurer of the Association.
J. Forbes Campbell, Special Assistant to the Board, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Washington, D. C., and G. Fred Berger, Chairman of the Committee on Bank Management Problems of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, and Treasurer of the Norristown-Penn. Trust Company, Norristown, Pennsylvania.

The principal speaker at the Convention Banquet, which will be held in the evening, will be James R. Young, who for thirteen years was head of the International News Service in Tokyo, and author of "Behind the Rising Sun" and "Our Enemy." Mr. Young will talk on "Why Japan Will Fail" and discuss the latest developments of the war in the Pacific.

AIR RAID SHELTER FOR ELEPHANTS

The zoos through the country are making preparations to protect their valuable animals from death or injury, in the event of air raid. But Mr. Benson on account of the central location of his popular place, within easy distance of your home, yet away from war industries—does not fear destruction of your favorite animals or birds, from air raids, no matter how severe.

In calling his marvelous collection of very valuable animals, "Your favorites," he feels that in these trying times, your thoughts will be turned away from the Wild Animal Farm and to the elephant rides, taken some years ago, and followed by memories of yesterday, when you again caught the thrill, in seeing the young folks enjoying Benson's.

Mr. Benson, of Benson's Wild Animal Farm, Nash, A. N. H., has decided that there shall be no risk of your losing those precious moments of the future, and is safeguarding your pleasure this summer, by safeguarding his and his elephants, "Dolly" and "Betsy."

A tremendous excavation is being made with camouflaged roof of trees in one of the large orchards on the farm, which opened last Sunday, and will be opened every day at 10 a. m. in the future.

He was a former overseer of a private factory or training school in America where liquor is sold to the men and drunk by them on the premises. Why should our National Government have liquor in the soldiers' workshop when such high priced machinery is in operation? If the soldiers must drink, let them drink while they are off duty and out of the training camps. Liquor and machinery do not mix well.

Thanking you for giving me your views concerning this measure, and with best personal regards, I am

Newton W.C.T.U.
Assured Support
On Bill S 860

Mrs. Sarah S. P. Stevens of 1190 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, who is president of the W. C. T. U. has received the following letter from U. S. Senator W. Lee O'Daniel.

United States Senate,
May 9th, 1942.

Dear Mrs. Stevens:
Your communication of May 4th, signed by yourself and others concerning S 860 has been received, and I am glad to have your comments on this worthy measure. I am very much in favor of this bill and was pleased to have the opportunity to present it to the Senate for further consideration on January 16.

As Governor of Texas, I recommend the same kind of legislation and fought for its enactment. Therefore, you may know that I shall continue my efforts along this line as United States Senator from Texas.

Every effort should be made to protect our boys and in behalf of their welfare, during their call to defend our democracy, I consider it a privilege to endeavor to strive for the enactment of S. 860. Also, from a purely business standpoint, I do not know of a private factory or training school in America where liquor is sold to the men and drunk by them on the premises. Why should our National Government have liquor in the soldiers' workshop when such high priced machinery is in operation? If the soldiers must drink, let them drink while they are off duty and out of the training camps. Liquor and machinery do not mix well.

Thanking you for giving me your views concerning this measure, and with best personal regards, I am
Yours very sincerely,
W. LEE O'DANIEL,
United States Senator,
Texas.

Charlemont Plea

Elmer E. Ross, 314 Winchester st., who led the speakers in favor of the Charlemont petition, said there were more than 100 homes in the section which had no transportation facilities, adding that many of the residents were "defense workers." He said the distance of the proposed extension was nine tenths of a mile.

Attorney Turner declared that the company, in view of the ODT order, had no authority to extend the service unless it was "to places of defense employment, military and naval establishments, or unless failure to provide the service would have a definitely unfavorable effect on the war effort." He also cited the difficulty of obtaining new buses. He pointed out that the Boston City Council has established and if the company fails to do so, the board may after a period of 30 days grant a permit to another concern, "if any can be found to petition for such a permit."

SUBURBAN PLAY GROUP
WABAN

It is essential now, as never before, that children be supervised constantly during the school vacation. With this in view, many parents have asked the Suburban Play Group to continue its beneficial program for children five or six days each week throughout the summer.

While it is recognized that a summer at a boarding camp is the more desirable and beneficial, the Suburban Play Group will operate as a substitute. It is most difficult to duplicate a complete change of environment into a healthful, mountain region away from city living, which the boarding camp offers.

The lack of travel and help, unused beach resorts, parents' duties in defense and home tensions are reasons why children should have some sort of camp experience if they are unable to attend boarding camp. In the Suburban Play Group, boys will receive the necessary private instruction, training and group activities to gain a more constructive and healthful vacation than merely to remain inactive and idle "around the house."

The Suburban Play Group, located at the Angier Estate, with its four acres of grounds, offers unusual opportunities for outdoor games and instruction in athletics. A summer program somewhat similar to that of a regular camp will be given.

Newton Builders
Hold Conference

The Peck Lumber Co. sponsored a meeting last Friday evening at the Newton Highlands Woman's Club attended by many contractors, realtors and others interested in the repair and maintenance of property.

There was a discussion of the new Priorities and Credit regulations relating to the building industry.

Mr. Thomas McLaughlin of the Albert Building Credits, a subsidiary of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., spoke on the new credit regulations. He pointed out that "repairing and maintenance" loans were now the only loans which did not require down payments. He said that the W. P. O. was not a stop-order, rather a go-ahead order to keep up values of property.

Reginald W. Holt of the Northern Retail Lumber Dealers Association, analyzed the WPB-L 41 order as pertaining to the building industry and brought out the things that could and could not be done in the light of this order. No modernizing work amounting over $500 can be done but repairing and maintenance work can be done as long as the structural appearance of property is not altered.

Parish Players
To Present Farce

The spring play, "The Whole Town's Talking," by John Emerson and Anita Loos, of the Parish Players of Newton Highlands is to be presented on Monday and Tuesday, May 25 and 26, at St. Paul's Church at 8:20 p. m.

It is a farce during which one can laugh and relax. The excellent cast includes Bob and Caroline Allingham as Mr. and Mrs. and the plot revolves around their opposing schemes for their marriageable daughter, played by Alice Blake. The mother's candidate, a debonaire young blood, a part taken by Edgar Swail, is contending against the father's humdrum business partner. Ben Evans ably portrays this character. Dore thinks it would be a good idea to invest his prosaic friend with glamour by means of suggesting a love affair with a certain young Hollywood star, but when she and her director-fiance, Doris McLaughlin and Kemp Lambert, appear there is much confusion, leading to many humorous incidents before the daughter finally gets her man.

Other members of the cast are Nancy Tirrell, Edith Pratt, Tiny Evans, Adele Fletcher and Dick Pope. Direction is in the capable hands of Winifred M. Douglas, who always achieves a smooth-running performance.

'Teething-Ring'

Still another of the scientifically designed contraptions for the very young is an ultra-modern "teething-ring," which really isn't a ring at all but a string of three-cornered pieces of plastic. These things are just the right thickness for a baby to bite on and they are so fashioned that it is impossible for a youngster to stretch his, or her, small mouth out of shape, or to swallow the object.

Statue Unveiled
With Exercises

The statue of Our Blessed Lady which recently was placed near the entrance of the Church of Our Lady at Newton, was unveiled on Sunday afternoon at an impressive service following the May procession in which about 800 children of Our Lady's School participated. Miss Agnes Earls, president of the Sodality unveiled the statue. She was assisted by Mrs. Mary Bryson, vice-president. Miss Helen Hart, secretary, placed the crown on the statue.

Due to the inclement weather the rest of the ceremony had to be held inside the church. Bishop Richard J. Cushing of the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre, and Rev. John A. Sheridan, the pastor, were the principal speakers. Assisting in the ceremony were Rev. Russell T. Haley, Rev. Daniel F. Riordan, Rev. James E. Fahey and Rev. Thomas Fallon of the Church of Our Lady. Rev. Bernard S. Winn and Rev. John Cotter of the Sacred Heart Church.

Newton Volunteer Auxiliary Police Seek Radio Operators

All Citizens Over 21 Eligible For Enrollment In Classes Which Will Be Held Throughout the State

The Communications Division of the Newton Volunteer Auxiliary Police is interested in recruiting additional radio operators having Commercial Third Class Radio Telephone Operators Licenses, or licenses of a higher grade. Such licenses may be issued by the Federal Communications Commission as a result of examination of applicant at the local Federal Communications Commission Office, Custom House, Boston, Massachusetts. The requirement for additional operators is primarily for those who may be called for duty in time of emergency only, all such equipment being under the supervision of the Newton Police Department, Mr. Walter W. Hartford, Radio Technician.

For purposes of instructions toward meeting the requirements for operator license examinations, the Radio Department of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety has established a school for radio operators to insure an adequate group to operate civilian defense radio stations in Regional and District Warning Centers and Report Centers.

All citizens 21 or over, regardless of sex, are eligible for enrollment in the classes which will be in selected centers throughout the Commonwealth. Those who, because of age or physical condition, are unable to enlist in the military forces are specially encouraged to take this opportunity of participating in Civilian Defense.

Three courses are to be given as follows:

(1) A Primary Radio Telephone Course will meet two nights a week for approximately three weeks. This will include a study of radio laws and particular attention will be paid to questions of the type included in government radio examinations. Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be well prepared to pass the F. C. C. exam for a third class radio-telephone permit.

(2) An Amateur Course will meet two nights a week for approximately fifteen weeks. Mrs. Filene To Give Tea June 2

Mrs. Lincoln Filene, Mrs. George Richmond Fearing, Mrs. Alvan T. Fuller and Mrs. William C. Conant, have invited many Greater Boston women leaders to be present at a tea, to be given at the home of Mrs. Filene, Church st., Weston, Tuesday, June 2. The guests are asked to be present at 3 o'clock to meet Mrs. Colonel Richard F. Stretton, wife of Colonel Stretton, just made head of the New England work of The Army and Major Hazelwood, director of the organization's fresh air camp, in Sharon. Both Army women will speak.

Mrs. Fearing, head of the Greater Boston Women's Committee of The Salvation Army's campaign set-up makes it clear that these teas are to educate those who know so little about the work of the Army. It is to acquaint women leaders with what shall and is being done for unfortunate women-children.

Surprise Air Raid Test Planned Here During May 31-June 14 Period

No Audible Alarm To Be Given, Nor
Will a Blackout Be Put Into Effect—
To Mobilize Wardens by Telephone

In order to determine how the Newton Civilian defense organization will function under conditions approximating those of a real air raid, a surprise mobilization and test which will involve approximately eight hundred individual incidents will be held on an unannounced date some time between May 31 and June 14 inclusive.

The first notice that A. R. P. workers will have will be the official mobilization call by telephone. No audible alarms will be given, nor will a blackout be put into effect.

Shortly after receiving the mobilization call it will be assumed that a flight of enemy bombers attempting to attack the Watertown Arsenal have been diverted from their course by our interceptors and attacked over the City of Newton. The enemy bombers, in an attempt to escape, jettison their loads of high explosive and incendiary bombs, which fall at random on various parts of Newton.

The incidents will be divided into two classes: Class No. 1, having numbers under 100, will call for the dispatching of men and equipment by the various air raid services. Class No. 2, having numbers of 100 and over, will be incidents of a type which the Warden would handle himself and then report as a completed incident.

The test will be conducted by a group of men driving cars identified by white flags. In order to signal the occurrence of an incident, these men will give three long blasts on their horns. A warden who hears such a signal reports immediately to the driver of the car with the white flag. He will be handed a slip describing the incident and then it is up to him to act. If the incident has a number under 100 and involves casualties, there will be persons at the incident wearing white arm bands to represent the injured people. They will have 3 x 5 cards describing their injuries. If the incident has a number over 100 and involves an injured person, there will not be a person to represent the casualty, but it will be entirely imaginary.

It will be assumed that the "All Clear" sounds one hour and twenty minutes after the mobilization call, so wardens can quit their posts and return home one hour and twenty minutes after they are mobilized.

Meet to Consider Playground Plan

Directors Are Needed
For Summer Season

A meeting of the Newton Recreation Commission is to be held on June 9 to complete plans for the summer season. Due to present conditions it has been difficult to obtain sufficient personnel staff the playgrounds this season. A minimum of 70 directors are needed and it is hoped that persons who have had training in camp recreation work can be enlisted to give their services. Of 38 male members of last year's staff only 12 are returning, and the life guard staff this year will be composed mostly of young women.

The Waban Woman's Club is enrolling members of that section of the city for volunteer work on the playgrounds and it is expected that other organizations in the city will make a similar effort to enlist workers in order that the playgrounds will be properly supervised.

COMMISSIONER CHAGNON OF THE STATE BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN PHARMACY, MAKES A STATEMENT FOR NEWTON DRUGGISTS

Every American appreciates the need for complete co-operation with our War effort—and the need for bending every ounce of strength toward the defeat of our enemies. Everyone expects some disruption of the normal course of living.

Hundreds of thousands of men and women are now employed in this gigantic War effort. More hundreds of thousands will be needed.

This means that our normal services are bound to be affected.

They are being affected. Many of our former employees have been drawn into services in connection with the War effort. It is not easy to replace them. It takes years of study and experience to develop a competent pharmacist. It takes years to develop salespeople. It takes weeks and months to train fountain personnel to serve our customers as we would like to have them served.

It is not always possible to give new help that training nowadays; in fact, it is sometimes impossible to immediately replace people who go to War jobs—and we are forced to operate short-handed.

We shall not relax our efforts to do our level best to give you the type of service to which we feel you are entitled.

Your patience, however, we do request. Please understand our position—and when things don't go as smoothly as they used to in the past, remember that we are trying our best to rectify conditions as rapidly as today's conditions will permit.

The War must be won—even if we cannot enjoy every degree of comfort and service to which you have been accustomed.

If you will bear with us a bit these days, we shall consider it a highly appreciated expression of your good will.

(Signed) WILFRED CHAGNON.

Summer Session In War Production To Be Given

In recognition of the rapidly expanding engineering opportunities for women in war industries, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology announced today a summer session course in War Production Practice for women. The course, which will cover a period of seven weeks beginning June 8, will be given in the Institute's Department of Business and Engineering Administration and is designed to qualify women for national service as war production aides in manufacturing establishments. To qualify for the course, students must be between twenty and thirty years of age inclusive and must have had at least two years of collegiate work in which emphasis on the sciences is preferred. Experience in working with people is a desirable background for this new course.

The subjects to be covered by this course include factory production, accounting, planning and scheduling of factory output, mechanical drawing and interpretation, time and motion study, as well as visits to industrial plants and practice demonstrations in machine tool, foundry, welding, mechanical processing, testing of materials and power laboratories.

The program was planned after consultation with a group of representative war manufacturers and is designed to give students working facilities in four fields, namely: record-keeping, technical sketch-making, production control activities, and work simplification methods.

Letters To The Editor

N. C. L. A. COMMENTED

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Page one of the May 21 issue of the Graphic, to my mind, affords a very interesting study of how democracy works in local community life in Newton. The two items which arrested my attention were the reports of the annual meetings of the Newton Centre and the Newtonville Improvement associations.

The part of the report of the Newton Centre Association which first caught my eye was, "... a resolution was passed unanimously by the 10 members who were present that the association join with the Newton Highlands and the Newtonville Improvement associations."

It represents the free voice of the people in the conduct of community affairs.

A second part of the item which interested me was, "Mayor Paul M. Goddard gave a talk reviewing the activities of city officials in war times..." This item shows that the members of the association believe in intelligence as a basis for the proper exercise of the rights of local citizenship.

On the other hand, the report of the annual meeting of the Newtonville Improvement Association gives as the only action of the membership worthy of note the election of a slate of officers prepared in advance by a special committee.

Its speaker gave a talk on, "New England in the Changing Seasons," a subject which very remotely, at least, concerns citizenship in Newtonville in these times when every possible effort of every community in America should be contributing toward intelligence in citizen responsibility.

I have never seen an item in the Graphic, or in any other paper or report, which showed that the general membership of the Newtonville Improvement Ass'n ever exercises any voice in the policies of the Association. In other words, it seems to me one looking in from the outside as though the Newtonville Association were very far from a democratic form of government, or ever made any attempt to interest its members in community problems. To be charitable, it looks like a benevolent autocracy.

We are engaged in a gigantic struggle for the survival of democracy throughout the entire world. But the roots of democracy lie in local community life. That is where democracy is lived and that is where it may be lost after Hitler and Hirohito and all their totalitarian ideas have been banished to Mars. When we consider the kind of a world in which we wish to live after this terrible war has been won, let us neglect the problems of more and better democracy in the old home town.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT W. SPENCER

William H. Fish Home From Orient

Reports Experiences Serving in China

William H. Fish, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fish of 19 Bonwood st., Newtonville, recently returned to his home after a 12,000 mile trip from the Orient. Fish, who resigned from the Navy last September, joined the American Volunteer Group, arriving in China in November where he spent seven months until forced to resign on account of illness. He has now signed up for civilian air transport work under supervision of the Army and will report for his new duties on June 15.

Fish, who was on reconnaissance duty during his stay in China, described a mass crash landing of five members of the "Flying Tigers" in Burma when their fuel supplies became exhausted. None were seriously injured and after they had salvaged as much of their equipment as they could carry, they burned their planes so they would not fall into the hands of the Japanese. They were lost for a while in the Mountains but finally made their way to Lashio, 90 miles from where they had crashed.

While in China, Fish had dinner with Generalissimo and Mrs. Chiang Kai-Shek.

On his return home he visited the wife and baby of John Hennessey, son of Dr. Hennessey, of 29 Carver rd., Newton Highlands. Hennessey, who also joined the American Volunteer Group last September is still in China.

Brig. General Claire L. Chennault, U. S. A., commanding officer of the U. S. V. G., told Fish when bidding him farewell that the Group will continue in action, and asked for American help. It had been previously reported that the Group was to be disbanded.

Mr. Dalton is the instructor for the Newton police and he outlined the course of training which the new recruits will receive. Mr. Dalton introduced Mr. Dalton.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 14, 1887

The laying out of Grove Hill Park into house lots has opened up for building purposes the most beautiful part of Newtonville, which, had the public park project of a few years ago been accomplished, would have shut this section out entirely for residences.

The Phillips estate on Newtonville ave. was sold Wednesday afternoon by Atwood & Weld to Isaac Tucker of Boston; the house with 12,000 feet of land for $3,025 and the two adjoining lots, each containing about 1,000 feet, brought 26 and 23 cents respectively.

The Aldermanic Chamber in the City Hall has been cleaned this week, probably to get rid of the electric atmosphere left by the winter's session.

One of the incidents in the police court this week was the appearance of a woman, who was arrested for profanity. Fortunately such cases are almost unknown here.

The new Savings Bank in West Newton will fill a long felt want, as it provides a safe place of deposit right at home, for people who wish to lay by small sums for a rainy day.

The Charles river rises in the town of Milford, and it flows through Bellingham, Franklin, Medway, Medfield, Sherborn, Natick, Dover, Dedham, Needham, Newton, Weston, Waltham, Watertown, Brookline, Cambridge and Charlestown to the sea.

The Cottage Hospital now has 31 patients, as large a number as it ever had, and 14 nurses and pupils. There is urgent need for more rooms for the pupils and nurses, and more accommodations would contribute to the income of the hospital as the nurses are in great demand for outside nursing.

Nothing would be more of an accommodation to the thousands of summer visitors to Echo Bridge than the proposed stairway from Ellis st. to the top of the structure. The electric cars which will soon be running here will emphasize such a demand.

Mr. F. S. Rollins, of Newtonville, has bought a new pair of bays and has been speeding a little over the Newton roads this week.

Officer Fletcher took three men and two bears to the police court Monday morning in the patrol wagon. The men were fined and are now out of Newton much to the relief of those who use horses.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 11, 1917

Two matters of importance received the consideration of the alderman last Monday evening, when the budget for the year amounting to $1,657,616.48 was passed as recommended by the Finance committee, and a permit to transport intoxicating liquors in this city were refused.

Newton is "bone dry." Both matters were debated at length, the longest arguments on the budget were equal, on unimportant salary increases while the largest items of appropriations received little or no attention.

The passage of 1917 budget gives some idea of the amount of the tax levy for the year. The total figure is about $1,000 more than that in the tax levy of 1916, and represents, on the present valuation an increase of about 70 cents in the rate.

At a meeting of the Newton Corner business committee held last evening it was voted to hold the proposed flag raising in Nonantum Square Sunday afternoon. It is hoped to have a parade. The line will probably be formed at Farlow Park and after marching through some of the principal streets will end at Nonantum Square, where the flag will be unfurled and addresses made by prominent speakers.

The speaker for next week's meeting will be Hon. Thomas F. Buckley.

United War Fund Under Way

Streamlining its program to wartime needs and rationing coupons, the Educational Division of the Greater Boston United War Fund is organizing the metropolitan area for pre-campaign activities. Under the leadership of Mrs. John A. Moir the division will take an important part in the 1943 United War Fund campaign which will again include the Greater Boston Community Fund together with local and national war service appeals.

The loyalty of division leaders from all sections of Greater Boston was demonstrated by 100 per cent attendance at a recent conference which, in view of the gas rationing, was called at central Fund headquarters in the Boston Chamber of Commerce building. Heretofore meetings have been held in the metropolitan area within comfortable driving distance of the 46 communities participating in the Fund.

Mrs. Mortimer M. Prescott has been appointed chairman, and Mrs. Gordon M. Morrison, vice-chairman, of the Education Committee for Cambridge.
